RESIGNATION

23 December 23, 2024

24

25 To Acting Chief Clerk of the Colorado House Vanessa Reilly and 26 Colorado Secretary of State Jena Griswold:

27

28 The 119th Congress of the United States, of which I am a member-elect, 29 will be sworn in on January 3, 2025. My term as a member of the 30 Colorado State Legislature's 74th General Assembly does not end until 31 January 8, 2025. Article V, Section 8 of the Colorado constitution states 32 that, "no member of congress...shall be a member of either house [of the 33 General Assembly] during his continuance in office." In compliance with 34 the state constitution, I therefore give notice of my resignation as state
35 representative for Colorado House District 48, effective January 2, 2025
36 at 11:59pm Mountain Time. It has been a tremendous honor to serve my 37 constituents, House District 48, and the State of Colorado. I look forward 38 with eager anticipation to continuing that service in the 119th Congress.
39 May God continue to bless Colorado and the United States of America.

41 Sincerely,

42

43 /signed/

44 Gabe Evans

45 State Representative

46 House District 48

24 Speaker McCluskie addressed the members of the House of 25 Representatives:

26
27 Good morning! It is my great privilege to welcome you all to the opening day
28 of the 75th General Assembly! A special welcome to our newly elected
29 members, the fresh faced stars on the House stage. New members, please rise 30 and give a wave!

31
32 I would also like to welcome the former Speakers of the House: The honorables
33 Alec Garnett, KC Becker, Crisanta Duran, Mark Ferrandino, Terrance Carroll,
34 Frank McNulty, and Russ George. We are so grateful for your public service 35 and leadership, both back then (and for some of you, way back then!) and now.
36 I am pleased to recognize State Treasurer Dave Young! Thank you for your 37 dedication and service to our state.

39 And my deepest love and appreciation to my family - my husband Jamie, my 40 children Ian and Cait, my parents Bob and Etta, Sister Susan, Brother and Sister
41 in law David and Vicki, and their daughter Jaclynn.

42
43 Members, let's all thank our families who have been integral to our journeys in 44 public service.

45
46 I also want to thank our sensational team who work their magic behind the 47 scenes - our clerks, sergeants, custodial staff. To our nonpartisan and partisan 48 staff, including our legislative aides, thank you all so much for your dedication 49 and commitment to the institution.

50
51 This session is also the first for our new Chief Clerk, Vanessa Reilly! Please 52 give her a warm welcome to this new role. There's also a new President over 53 in that lower chamber - if you see President Coleman today, make sure you give 54 him a big High Five and a "Let's Do This!"

56

1 Now let us pause and give honor to our veterans - for everyone with us today,
2 members and guests alike, please rise or give a wave if you are currently serving 3 in the military or are a veteran of the US Armed forces. We are forever in your 4 debt.
5
6 Finally, I am proud of the experience and dedication of our majority and 7 minority leadership teams. Will the leadership teams from both sides of the 8 aisle please stand and be recognized. It is truly an honor to serve with all of you.
9
10 And I am especially grateful to Majority Leader Duran. I know members
11 appreciate your partnership & leadership. Happiest of Birthdays, Majority 12 Leader, this must be the best and craziest birthday party ever.
14 With campaigns in the rear view mirror, election 2024 behind us, our 15 responsibility to govern is now front and center. Good governance calls us all 16 to listen to one another, hear the stories of our constituents and work together
17 to craft lasting policy that meets the demands of the moment. On policies big 18 and small, I know Democrats and Republicans will work together, as we have 19 so many times before.
20
21 Just look at school finance formula reform, property tax cuts, higher education
22 investments, workforce initiatives, and of course, uncertified potatoes. (While 23 some say the idea for that policy was only half BAKED, eventually you all 24 HASHED it out and it was a SMASHING success.)
26 With each new session, we have an opportunity to start fresh, and that includes 27 how we manage debate. When relevant to the topic at hand, chairs will uphold 28 members' rights to free speech. At times, this will be uncomfortable for 29 lawmakers on both sides of the aisle. The right to free speech coexists alongside 30 our obligation not to spread hatred.
31
32 I know with the work that lies ahead, Colorado will lead the way. The national 33 spotlight is on us. This is our moment to demonstrate what good, responsive 34 governance and leadership looks like for our country.
35
36 But folks, our work this year will not be easy. We will need to trim nearly $1 37 billion from our state budget in a way that ensures strong safety net services for 38 the most vulnerable among us and protects our bipartisan investments in early 39 childhood, schools, colleges and universities.
40
41 As a result, there may be some unpopular decisions ahead - choices that put 42 truly deserving efforts and priorities in competition with each other for funding.
43 The Joint Budget Committee has a track record of working across party lines 44 to deliver a balanced budget, and it is now more important than ever to continue 45 in this tradition. My thanks to Representatives Bird, Sirota and Taggart in 46 advance for your hard work and those enduring sleepless nights.
47
48 Even though our budget situation is challenging, I know this body remains
49 committed to investing in our public schools. We will not bring back the budget
50 stabilization factor, and we will implement the new, equitable school finance 51 formula on time that our kids deserve. Thank you Governor Polis for your 52 strong commitment to public education investing in our children year over year.
53
54 Like too many special education students in Colorado, Jeremiah, who is twelve, 55 needed additional learning supports in school. Not every public school has the 56 resources they need to adequately teach students with Down syndrome.

1 But when his parents found a special education program designed for his 2 abilities, Jeremiah excelled. His academic achievement improved, as did his 3 self-esteem. He found his calling. If you haven't heard of him yet, you soon
4 will. His calling, it turns out, is acting, and he's very good at it. Jeremiah is the 5 star of the film "Color Book," which tells the story of a single father raising his 6 young son with Down syndrome.

8 The power of Jeremiah's personal story, and his magnificent portrayal of 9 Mason, help shape our understanding of the challenges we see in gaining access
10 to a high quality education and safety net services in our communities. Exciting
11 news! He has been nominated for the NAACP's outstanding youth performance 12 in a motion picture award. I'm overjoyed that Jeremiah and his family are here 13 with us today. Please give him a round of applause.

15 My goal this session is to protect the progress we've made for students like 16 Jeremiah, by increasing funding for special education, at-risk students, English 17 language learners, and rural schools.

18
19 The hard truth is that we will need to grapple with declining student enrollment.
20 We will navigate this issue carefully while listening to our partners in public 21 education. Our guiding principle must be to keep equity for our students at the 22 heart of our decision making. We wouldn't be Colorado without our beautiful 23 mountains, brilliant forests, and clean air. Let's take our water for example.

25 Water is a part of our Western identity, essential to our nearly $50 billion
26 agricultural economy, as well as Colorado's iconic outdoor recreation and 27 tourism industries.

28
29 I took a five day ride down the Yampa River this past spring. What a thrill! And 30 I learned one important lesson - that's how to play defense against those roaring 31 rapids. There's a saying in the rafting business, "Be sure you Rig to Flip". That 32 means making sure everything stays secure when your raft guide flips the boat 33 and you're taken for a swim - it's all about being ruthlessly prepared, so you 34 protect the people and things you love most.

35
36 This year, I expect we will continue to face threats to our water resources, and 37 we may have to play defense. But, thanks to leaders from both parties, we have 38 already taken significant steps to protect our state's most precious resource - yes 39 folks, we are prepared and we are "rigged to flip."

40
41 We should be particularly thankful to the many farmers and ranchers doing 42 everything they can to reduce their water use, embrace innovative technologies
43 and help lead us through this drought. Colorado Agriculture truly makes us 44 proud.

45
46 I also want to mention that soon, we will be creating a new bipartisan Outdoor 47 Recreation Caucus that will put Western Voices at the table on the issues that 48 impact the economies of our communities.

49
50 We are equally committed to protecting Colorado's pristine environment, 51 reaching our climate goals and making energy costs more affordable. We've 52 made important progress funding transit, front range and mountain rail, and 53 eliminating dangerous pollution. We are so grateful for the work of 54 Representatives Willford and Bacon and all the lawmakers who have prioritized 55 improving our air quality.

1 Like many of you, when I visit my district, the stories I hear most often at town
2 halls, in the grocery store or at neighborhood gatherings continue to be about 3 how hard it is to get ahead.

5 That's why, this session, we will redouble our efforts to make Colorado more
6 affordable. Inflation is down. Unemployment is low. Home prices and rents are 7 leveling off, and we are starting to see signs that our aggressive multi-year
8 agenda to lower costs for families is bearing fruit.

9
10 Reinsurance and the Colorado Option are saving Coloradans nearly half a 11 billion dollars this year on health insurance premiums. We cut property taxes 12 for businesses and homeowners, and we cut taxes for middle and lower-income 13 families.

15 Thanks to last year's refundable tax credit initiative, the cost of tuition and fees
16 at community colleges is now covered for the vast majority of students.
17 Universal preschool, full day kindergarten, and investments in child care are 18 saving families money.

20 Because of our work, Coloradans trust elected officials to GET THINGS 21 DONE. Other states are watching us - they are seeing what's possible when 22 governors and legislatures do big things together. For example, housing. We've 23 cracked the land use code and invested hundreds of millions of dollars in 24 affordable housing projects and ending homelessness.

26 This year, we will: resolve the stalemate on construction defects reform, tackle 27 algorithms that drive up rent, ease red tape for religious institutions to build on 28 their own land, incentivize modular home construction, and bring forward 29 creative new approaches to driving down property insurance costs.

30
31 Let's foster an even stronger economy in this state by lowering costs for 32 businesses and working families, and finding fair opportunity for all. Let's do 33 this by taking steps to eliminate wage theft, strengthen worker's voices, and 34 create low-cost pathways to college credentials, in the big blur between high 35 school college career.

37 And just as we did last year with the quantum technology industry, we will 38 seize opportunities to support innovative economic development, like 39 (capturing the attention of the) Sundance Film Festival and driving millions of 40 tourism dollars into local communities and businesses.

41
42 But folks, a less expensive Colorado is not our Colorado if we fail to protect our 43 rights and freedoms. When the Dobbs decision came down and the threat to 44 overturn Roe v. Wade was clear, we responded by protecting abortion access 45 in statute. This past November, the voters went one step further and protected 46 that right in our state's constitution.

48 Similarly, we heard the stories of concern from families in our state and referred 49 a measure to the ballot safeguarding the freedom to marry. And again, voters
50 overwhelmingly approved it. This is leadership. This is Colorado.

51
52 We don't know exactly what we will face from this new administration, but 53 they have published their playbook and we are watching. We will be ready to 54 do what is best for the people of this state because we've been here before.

1 No matter where we come from, all Coloradans want the same things: to put a
2 roof over our family's heads, put food on the table, and pursue the American
3 Dream. Throughout our nation's history, immigrants have been used as a 4 political scapegoat to divide us and distract us from real challenges.
5
6 Immigrants are an integral part of Colorado's diverse and thriving communities.
7 Immigrants power our economy and make up 30 percent of our construction
8 workforce, 12 percent of entrepreneurs, 11 percent of STEM workers, and eight 9 percent of nurses in the state.
11 Coloradans do not support mass deportations, separating families, or detaining
12 parents at their children's schools. In addition to the devastating human cost, 13 mass deportations will cause significant labor shocks and drive up the cost of 14 health care, food, and housing.
16 Democrats and Republicans alike oppose deporting our friends and neighbors 17 who have been here since childhood, built their lives here and are making our 18 communities better places to live. My thanks to the many organizations
19 supporting Colorado's hard working immigrant families, like the Mountain
20 Dreamers. Mountain Dreamers in Frisco, Colorado work to support immigrants 21 and make the Colorado Dream a reality for more people in our High Country 22 communities.
24 I want to especially thank their team with us today - Peter, Javier, Yerania, and 25 Miriam.
26
27 Representative Velasco, who was born in Mexico and grew up in mobile home
28 communities in the Vail Valley, and the Latino Caucus are leading our work on 29 this issue, alongside the Aurora delegation, including Representative Ricks - the 30 first African immigrant legislator - and we are so grateful to have their 31 expertise and lived experience in the General Assembly.
32
33 Colorado will remain a safe haven from attacks on reproductive rights, voting
34 rights, workers' rights, LGBTQ rights, personal liberty, and civil rights.
35
36 It doesn't seem all that long ago that Coloradans sent the first transgender 37 lawmaker to the capitol. Now entering her final term, Representative Titone has 38 served with grace and true leadership. I am thankful that Rep. Titone, along 39 with Assistant Majority Leader Bacon, Representative Froelich, and 40 Representative Garcia are ready to step up once again to protect Coloradans' 41 rights and freedoms.
42
43 Colorado is primed to lead. Where there is despair, we will light the way and 44 offer hope. We may face challenges from Washington, budget constraints, and 45 distractions right and left, but I continue to find immense joy in doing the 46 people's work. I know you all do as well.
47
48 So...Share YOUR story, listen to the STORIES of your colleagues and 49 constituents, and let the stories move you, keep your word, be open with your 50 colleagues, fight for what you believe in, be kind to all, and above all else, hold 51 space for defying gravity.
52
53 It is my privilege to open the People's House and welcome you all to the 75th 54 General Assembly.
56

1 Minority Leader Pugliese addressed the members of the House of 2 Representatives:

3
4 Good morning, colleagues, friends, and most importantly, the people of 5 Colorado who have sent us here to do your business. We are eternally grateful
6 and honored to be here today. As we open the 75th General Assembly, we are 7 reminded of the tremendous responsibility placed upon us as representatives.

8
9 I was talking to my children this morning, and they asked, “Mommy, why do
10 you keep doing this job?” Using my outside voice, I said, “Because the people 11 trusted me to be here, to be their voice.”

13 They did not do that for just me. They did that for every single one of us in this 14 chamber today. It is a privilege and an honor to serve our communities—all of 15 our communities throughout the state—whether in the Western Slope, the 16 Eastern Plains, Southern Colorado, Northern Colorado, Denver, or Colorado
17 Springs, which I am incredibly privileged to represent. I was so blessed this 18 summer to be the Minority Leader and travel into all of your communities, talk 19 to people at the doors, and truly understand the issues they felt were most 20 important for us to bring back to the legislature. I appreciate all of my members,
21 especially those who opened their homes and doors to me so that I could meet 22 your constituents. That was an incredible honor.

24 This session, the House Republicans remain steadfast in our commitment to 25 addressing the issues that matter to Colorado families. Again, these are the 26 issues we heard at the doors. Together, we aim to make life more affordable,
27 protect our children and families, and expand opportunities for every Coloradan 28 to make our state strong and vibrant.

30 Affordability remains at the forefront of our legislative priorities. You will hear
31 a lot about that this session. You will see us going to the microphone to talk
32 about the conversations we had and the work we can do together—and I do 33 believe we can do this work together—to meaningfully improve the lives of 34 Coloradans in all our communities.

36 With the rising costs of living, housing, and essentials making our families
37 struggle, we can be champions. My caucus and I have been committed, as I am 38 sure many of you will be this session with a budget deficit as large as ours, to 39 protecting the Taxpayer Bill of Rights. We have all heard this, not just at our 40 doors but in the votes of the people who have consistently chosen to protect the 41 Taxpayer Bill of Rights in Colorado. It is our responsibility to honor the 42 people’s vote and continue to fight to protect it.

44 As we talk about families, we are committed—and you will hear us
45 continuously fight—to protect Colorado’s children and families. Whether 46 advocating for safer communities, promoting parental choice in education, or 47 ensuring parents are in control of their children’s medical decisions—an issue 48 that is very near and dear to my heart—we believe that families, whether 49 parents, grandparents, or others raising children, are in the best position to know
50 what their children need. We will continue to fight for the right of parents to 51 advocate for their children in whatever setting they need to.

52
53 In our schools, we will continue to work on an education system that empowers
54 both parents and children, strengthens our public education system, expands
55 school choice, and ensures transparency and accountability in how taxpayer
56 dollars are spent. Education is a constitutional obligation for this body. We have

1 a duty to protect public education funding, which includes charter schools.
2 Several of us are also deeply invested in higher education and protecting that 3 funding because it represents the future of our workforce and the key to keeping 4 our children here in Colorado.
5
6 Regarding fees, we have had many conversations about affordability. I hope we 7 can find bipartisan support for some of this legislation, but as a legislature, we 8 must acknowledge the role we have played in making Colorado less affordable.
9 It is critical to have honest discussions about fees. People are telling us at the 10 doors that they cannot afford to raise their families here. Seniors are afraid they 11 must leave the state because they cannot live on fixed incomes. The legislature 12 contributed to this.
14 When we talk about affordable and attainable housing, the broader legislature
15 has played a role. While I support construction defect legislation because I 16 believe it is important, it is not the only area where the legislature impacts
17 housing. Everyone in Colorado should have the opportunity to achieve their 18 American dream, and yet laws we have passed are standing in their way. We 19 will continue to propose ideas to improve the lives of people across the state.
21 The immigration conversation is difficult, as returning members know. These 22 are hard conversations. On this topic, as a first-generation American, I want to 23 share something personal. Many of you know my father came to this country at 24 18 with 50 cents in his pocket and a dream for a new life. He built a beautiful 25 family and a restaurant and was committed to ensuring that immigrants could 26 come to this country legally and be welcomed. This was a cause he championed 27 throughout his life here.
28
29 I remain committed, as does my caucus, to ensuring a path to legal immigration 30 so we can build a strong workforce and thriving families. It hurts my heart to 31 hear some of the rhetoric we may encounter in this chamber because that is not 32 the American dream.
33
34 On public safety, we are united in advocating for safer communities. We 35 support the removal of violent illegal immigrants who harm people in our 36 communities. This should be a bipartisan issue, and I am eager to understand 37 differing perspectives.
38
39 When it comes to constitutional rights, I am so pleased we recently had the 40 opportunity to discuss protecting the First Amendment with a broader audience.
41 Protecting First Amendment rights—of every chamber member and every 42 constituent—is a core principle. Even in difficult conversations, that is what our 43 country was founded on. This house, the people's house, must be welcoming 44 to all.
45
46 We reaffirm our commitment to protecting the First Amendment and the 47 Constitution. Supporting the First Amendment means protecting it in its 48 entirety, not selectively. We took an oath to uphold and defend the Constitution
49 of the United States and Colorado. I know we are all committed to that, and I
50 look forward to these conversations.
51
52 In closing, while we may have differences on both sides of the aisle, I believe 53 every one of us has worked hard to be here. We are not here because it is easy.
54 We are here because we have been chosen to serve.

1 Let us find a path forward, working together to deliver real results for the 2 people of Colorado. The work will be hard, but I know we can succeed together.
3 I am excited about this opportunity and grateful to be here with all of you.

4
5 Thank you, Madam Speaker, and let us get to work for the people of Colorado.

7 Majority Leader Duran moved that the remarks of Speaker McCluskie

15 Jared Polis
16

17 Welcome. I'd like to begin with a moment of silence in memory of President
18 Jimmy Carter, whose funeral is being held today in Washington, DC. On this 19 national day of mourning, we should all take to heart the spirit of integrity and 20 service Jimmy Carter embodied, both as a public official and in private life.
21 Thank you.

23 In Colorado, our gentle, welcoming spirit reflects our magnificent landscape.
24 We always rise above—a beacon of freedom and opportunity— a home for 25 innovation and ingenuity, a people of honesty and integrity.

26
27 Altitude, rising above, is part of who we are as Coloradans, from our highest 28 point at 14,440 feet atop Mount Elbert, to our lowest elevation at 3,315 feet at 29 the Arikaree River in Yuma County, the highest low point of any state.

30
31 Living here in Colorado and simply breathing is an act of strength, a 32 fortification of mind and body, a constant reminder of our resolve. Altitude is 33 the secret ingredient to our unrivaled agriculture industry—including our San 34 Luis Valley Potatoes, grown in the largest and highest crop-producing alpine
35 valley in the world. Assistant Minority Leader Simpson hosted us on his farm 36 near Alamosa where I signed bipartisan laws to protect our water resources and 37 support farmers and ranchers to adopt practices that build healthy soil and 38 drought resilience.

40 Athletes from around the world come to train and compete at Colorado altitude, 41 looking for a taste of the grit and endurance that pushes athletes and our 42 championship teams, including the playoff-bound, Buffalo Bills bustin' Denver
43 Broncos, to be the very best, and attracts new teams including Colorado's new 44 National Women's Soccer League team! And also the Rockies play here.

45
46 Altitude is more than a place to put down roots, it's a path to the stars. It is the 47 high road that makes us a mile closer to space, the epicenter of the nation's 48 aerospace industry and military readiness, and contributes to Colorado being the 49 proud, rightful home of Space Command.

51 At altitude, the sun's rays shine stronger and brighter, spotlighting our bold
52 leadership in everything from innovative technology to the creative arts. Last 53 year, working with Representatives Valdez, Soper, and Senator Bridges,
54 Colorado made history, winning the coveted opportunity to establish Colorado
55 as America's Tech Hub for quantum technology.

1 This year, alongside our legislative champions Speaker McCluskie,
2 Representative Titone, Senators Amabile and Baisley, our sights are set on 3 raising the curtain as the new home of the world-famous Sundance Film
4 Festival, right here in Colorado.
5
6 In Colorado, good enough is NOT good enough. We aim to do more, to do
7 better, for more people...
8
9 To improve our standard of living. To keep communities clean and safe. To 10 increase access to housing that Coloradans can actually afford and to offer the 11 jobs, careers, and businesses that we want, need, and deserve. To protect our 12 wild spaces. To help every student thrive, right here, right now. To save people
13 money on everything from groceries to health care. To show hardworking 14 taxpayers that we respect their efforts and will be good stewards of their tax 15 dollars.
17 Last year after my speech, pundits said, "Polis, as expected, underscored
18 housing and affordability," and "the Governor is a nerd" who loves sci-fi 19 references. And they are right. Because what matters most to Coloradans should 20 matter most to all of us, and that's saving money and making all Coloradans'
21 lives better. And yes, there are more StarTrek fans out there than you may 22 realize.
23
24 Our values and our way of life are not dependent on who is in the White House
25 or Congress. I refuse to allow the disagreement, division, and disorder in 26 Washington DC to deter us in Colorado. That's not how we roll. Members of 27 the legislature, we can and will do better.
28
29 My principle is always: I will work with anyone and everyone when it's good 30 for Colorado, and I will oppose anyone and everyone, and do everything in my 31 power to protect Colorado when it hurts our people and state. Simple.
32
33 Just as I spoke out against President Biden's solar tariffs, I will strongly 34 criticize President Trump's proposed - and even worse - tariffs that would raise 35 the costs of everything, from groceries to housing to energy and so much more.
36
37 Alongside Commissioner Greenberg and our hardworking farmers, we opened 38 the Mexican domestic market to Colorado-grown potatoes and will fight against 39 misguided efforts that threaten the progress we've made, hurt our farmers, or 40 drive up the price of groceries.
41
42 None of us need to shy away from disagreements on policy - be it with the 43 president of the United States or any member of our legislature. But let me be 44 clear - there is a big difference between disagreeing with policy and attacking 45 our democratic institutions.
46
47 In the Free State of Colorado, we will fight against any attempt to rob us of our 48 freedom. In the Free State of Colorado, we understand what government IS, and 49 IS NOT here to do. Government is NOT here to dictate who you love, who you 50 marry, or if, when, and how you choose to start a family.
51
52 In the Free State of Colorado, we stand strong against baseless attacks on 53 law-abiding Coloradans who want nothing more than to contribute to our 54 society. In the Free State of Colorado, we protect and expand our freedoms,

1 tempered by the knowledge that freedom demands personal responsibility and 2 accountability. And we know the only way to continue to climb higher is 3 together.
4
5 Regardless of what happens in Washington DC, we will keep our eye on the 6 ball, on what matters most to Coloradans: affordability, livability, sustainability.
7
8 Much like our iconic aspen groves - among the largest living organisms in the 9 world - we know what appears on the surface to stand alone is often 10 interconnected by roots that run deep. The same holds true of our vision for 11 Colorado's future.
12
13 It is a future in which Coloradans live in safe, vibrant communities, in homes
14 we can afford, near transit hubs and job centers, with clean air to breathe, fresh 15 water to drink, and high-quality, affordable health care.
17 On the surface, these priorities may appear to stand alone. But by digging a little 18 deeper, we can see the roots that connect our climate goals, our transit goals,
19 our health care goals, and our affordability goals. Just like our beautiful aspen 20 trees, or an even larger organism-- a mycorrhizal fungi network -- or wood-wide 21 web.
23 Last year, we took real and meaningful steps to deliver more housing and 24 reduce costs, and I want to thank you for coming together to allow housing
25 supply to finally start catching up with demand, while cutting property taxes
26 and lowering the residential property tax rate thanks to the work of Speaker 27 McCluskie, Minority Leader Pugliese, and Senators Kirkmeyer and Frizell.
28
29 From giving Coloradans more freedom to build Accessory Dwelling Units
30 (ADUs) on their property thanks to the work of Senators Amabile, Exum, 31 Mullica, and Representative Weinberg, to expanding housing near transit and 32 job centers tackled by Representative Woodrow, and Senators Jodeh, and 33 Winter, eliminating discriminatory occupancy limits passed by 34
35 Representative Rutinel and Senator Gonzales, and getting rid of parking
36 requirements above and beyond what people want or need thanks to the work 37 of Representative Woodrow and Senator Hinrichsen. With these policies, we 38 are making it easier to build housing supply that's inherently affordable and 39 filling critical gaps in communities where the needs are greatest to help power 40 our economy.
41
42 In Colorado, we say "Yes!" to more housing! "Yes" to unlocking prosperity!
43 "Yes" to opportunity for Coloradans at every budget!
44
45 To narrow the gap between supply and demand, we must continue to expand 46 choices, speed up timelines, and reduce costs for new housing to come on the 47 market.
48
49 We are looking to do this in three key ways: working with Senator Bridges and 50 Senator Exum to lean into innovation and streamline the process for modular 51 housing options to be built faster and at lower cost; working with 52 Representatives Boesenecker and Woodrow to empower builders to build smart 53 stair apartments or homes; and, alongside Representatives Boesenecker and 54 Mabrey, and Senator Gonzales, allowing faith based and educational partners
55 to use land they have to build housing we need.

1 We are already seeing faith leaders step up to be a part of Colorado's housing
2 future, including at Solid Rock Christian Center in Colorado Springs, now
3 home to 77 affordable multi-family units on church land. Today, we are joined 4 by Pastor Ben Anderson, here today from Colorado Springs, thank you for your 5 leadership and we are excited to see these efforts replicated across the state.
6
7 Rather than force developers to build massive one-size-fits-all apartments that 8 take up entire city blocks, let's instead empower them to build apartments or 9 homes that fit the neighborhood through smart stair reform.
10
11 To unlock housing supply, we need to allow more housing Coloradans want.
12 This includes condos, which often start at a lower price point, providing more 13 affordable homeownership, and with it, the foundation for wealth building, and 14 building a nest egg for financial security.
15
16 And yet in Colorado, we've had a major decline in condo construction. Before 17 2008, condos made up nearly 20% of new home starts in Colorado, dropping 18 to 5% now. In 2005 there were nearly 3,000 condos on the market under 19 $400,000, and last year, there were only 22.
21 In the past, this conversation about meaningful condo liability reforms that 22 balance homeowner protections, de-risk the market, and allow for more condos
23 to be built and sold has been stifled on both sides. Let's turn the page and have 24 a real dialogue about what is preventing condos from being built, and solve for 25 it. I know we can get this done in a way that protects homeowners' rights when 26 there is a defect, but makes it less expensive and cumbersome for builders of 27 all kinds to start projects and deliver housing.
28
29 Let's commit today to work together, side-by-side, with Representative Bird
30 and President Coleman already leading the way, to make condo ownership more 31 available to more people – starting now!
32
33 We are also seeing - in Colorado and across the country - skyrocketing
34 homeowners insurance rates. I hear from Coloradans across our state who either 35 can't find coverage to begin with or who are getting priced out of the coverage
36 they have. And the rising cost of insurance isn't relegated to homeowners alone.
37 It gets passed on to renters, too.
38
39 Just as Lord of the Rings fans know that one does not simply walk into Mordor, 40 one does not simply fix homeowners insurance. Many factors contribute to the 41 soaring cost. But we need to start somewhere, and we need to start now.
42
43 Today, I'm calling for needed reforms to tackle the high cost of homeowners
44 insurance and expand access so that every homeowner can get the insurance 45 they need and learn more about ways to reduce their rates. Thank you to 46 Speaker McCluskie, Representatives Titone and Brown, Senator Amabile, and 47 Assistant Majority Leader Cutter for taking this on, helping to deal with the 48 largest cost drivers like hail and fire, and looking at risk reduction efforts that 49 can lower costs for everyone. And as we address climate-induced costs like 50 rising homeowners insurance, we are also focused on giving Coloradans more 51 options to get where we need to go.
52
53 Transportation congestion isn't just annoying – it's a leading source of 54 pollution, and by expanding public transit and rail options, we can save people 55 time and money on daily commutes and improve air quality.

1 We won key federal funding and made a $90 million downpayment for 2 passenger rail expansion on the front range. We secured a framework for the 3 Moffat Tunnel lease to put us on track for Mountain Rail Service.
4
5 Thanks to the steps we've taken, starting today, January 9th, the Winter Park
6 Express will run five days a week, at lower cost, from Denver's Union Station
7 to Winter Park Resort, with tickets as low as $19 for adults and under $10 for 8 kids. While we're not yet to the point where Scotty can beam us up to Craig,
9 with the support of Speaker McCluskie, Senator Roberts, and Representative
10 Lukens, we are well on our way to offering affordable, reliable, convenient, 11 and--dare I say--fun daily service between Denver and Granby in 2026, and then 12 on to Craig.
14 Last year, we brought together Colorado's leading oil and gas producers and 15 environmental advocates - people who rarely see eye to eye - and with the 16 support of Speaker McCluskie, Assistant Majority Leader Cutter, and 17 Representative Velasco, reached a historic agreement that will boost Colorado 18 from 42nd in the nation for state transit funding to 23rd.
19
20 These steps move us closer to our vision of a Colorado where you can step out
21 your door and choose from a variety of affordable, convenient, and reliable 22 ways to get where you want to go while cutting down on pollution and traffic.
23
24 To make this vision into a reality, it takes all of us working together - state,
25 regional, and local partners. My administration has sought to partner with RTD
26 and support RTD with new funding from new laws, but we continue to also 27 push for better governance, more budget transparency and accountability, and 28 ultimately, a district that is laser focused on getting more people where they 29 need to go.
30
31 I believe we all share the goal of increasing ridership. Having an A+ transit 32 agency for Colorado's largest metropolitan area is absolutely critical to meet the 33 needs of a growing and dynamic state, but while we trust, we must also verify.
34 Thank you to Senator Winter, Representatives Froelich and Lindstedt for 35 continuing to lead this important effort.
37 We hear from local and regional partners around the state - in rural and urban 38 communities - about the need to improve and add bus and train stations to 39 ensure riders can safely and easily get where they need to go. We look forward 40 to using innovative financing tools at the state level to help meet this need and 41 encourage new stations to help local partners boost ridership.
42
43 Our housing and transit goals go hand in hand with our climate goals and our 44 affordability goals. More, better, less expensive transit options, with housing 45 closer to job centers and transit hubs, save money and mean less pollution and 46 less congestion.
47
48 As they say in the Mandalorian - "this is the way." The way to build a clean 49 energy future, to tap into low cost clean energy, protect Coloradans from 50 volatile price swings of natural gas, save people money, and create jobs.
51
52 We're working with local governments to end costly permitting delays and 53 automate processing of rooftop solar and other clean energy applications. These 54 fixes will reduce lag time, allowing local governments to focus on other 55 priorities, and make it easier for Coloradans and businesses to buy low-cost 56 clean energy.

1 We are also working with Representative Joseph on a bill that will help more
2 Coloradans save money and reduce pollution with financing for energy
3 efficiency improvements in their homes, which can then be paid back over time
4 from savings on utility bills.

6 And while we welcome help from Washington, DC to accelerate our transition
7 to better transit and a clean energy future, Colorado will continue to lead the 8 way to tackle climate change and pollution, with or without federal support. We 9 are the masters of our own destiny.

11 Our bold climate action protects that which makes Colorado special: our 12 incredible quality of life, our air, water, and iconic wild spaces. Thanks to the 13 steps we're taking together, including last year with Senate Bill-230, starting 14 next year we will have over $50 million more to preserve our public lands and 15 wildlife.

17 And we continue to find new and innovative ways to support our thriving
18 outdoor recreation sector that contributes over $36 billion and over 400,000
19 jobs to our economy each year. This includes looking at new funding streams 20 for the care and preservation of our great outdoors, building on the success of 21 the Keep Colorado Wild pass, which cut the cost of entry to Colorado's 22 amazing 43 State parks, and expanded access for all Coloradans.

24 Since my days in Congress, and in my time as Governor, I have focused on 25 making government more efficient. Simple ideas like eliminating the penny
26 would save hundreds of millions of dollars. Here in Colorado, digitizing
27 services - like we've done with the myColorado app - and making DMV and tax 28 services more easily available to people, helps make government more efficient, 29 accessible, and responsive.

30
31 We have recruited the best and brightest from the private sector to work on 32 digitizing government through Colorado Digital Services, a national model.
33 We're working with Senator Weissman to drive efficiency and close tax
34 loopholes. And just a few weeks ago, I sawed through 208 old executive 35 orders--some going back over a century--cutting down, quite literally, on 36 needless bureaucracy. Continuing this work to reduce unnecessary laws and 37 regulations requires your help.

38
39 I urge the legislature, in partnership with the Colorado Chamber, Majority 40 Leader Rodriguez, and Minority Leader Lundeen to take a good look at 41 Colorado's laws and regulations and honestly question whether they are 42 adequately balancing consumer protection, health, and safety, while minimizing
43 red tape and reducing costs for the private sector and for Coloradans. As you 44 make your review, I encourage thinking about what more could be done to 45 unleash small businesses and drive economic growth.

47 We all have a role to play to foster a healthy business environment that works 48 for everyone. This includes protecting business certainty and keeping our 49 economy competitive while also ensuring good wages and opportunities for all 50 Coloradans.

51
52 It means engaging in good faith with those you may not agree with on sticky 53 issues, hearing one another's concerns, and making changes when and where 54 possible, knowing that just because you can pursue a costly and divisive fight 55 doesn't mean you should.

1 In the words of Taylor Swift, “I think I’ve seen this film before, and I didn’t like
2 the ending.” Together, we can take steps to keep Colorado the best place to live,
3 work, and do business.
4
5 We are working with Majority Leader Duran and Representative Froelich to 6 strengthen our wage theft laws in an effective way to ensure workers are paid
7 the money they are owed for the work they do. It is also now time to address the 8 way local minimum and tipped wage credit works to ensure restaurants - so 9 important to the fabric of our communities - can thrive across our state and all 10 workers – including those in both the front and back of the house – can earn a 11 good wage.
12
13 The Labor Peace Act in Colorado has a long history. Since its inception in 14 1943, the Act has provided a pathway to require workers to have mandatory
15 dues deducted from their paychecks via a second election. In fact, business 16 interests and organized labor have worked together to preserve this compromise
17 by blocking efforts to move Colorado to become a right-to-work state –
18 something I strongly oppose. In that same spirit of collaboration, my ask is that 19 if there are any efforts to reform the Labor Peace Act, they include support of 20 both workers and businesses to avoid the rancorous fights of the past.
21
22 If there is a possible agreement to change the status quo that has served to avoid 23 significant disputes for more than eighty years, let’s work together to find it.
24
25 This year, we are navigating a return to tighter budget conditions thanks to 26 lower inflation and increasing healthcare costs.
27
28 The balanced budget I’ve put forth includes thoughtful proposals that pair
29 meaningful cuts with new enterprises; the conversion of Pinnacol to better 30 support workers for the future; and targeted, high-impact investments to 31 improve public safety, fully fund our schools, and protect our social safety net.
32
33 I want to thank the JBC for their leadership and for partnering with us to do the 34 difficult work of making cuts while thinking creatively about how to avoid bad
35 outcomes. This is going to be hard, so hug a JBC member if you see them.
36
37 We look forward to working together with you to ensure that even and 38 especially in light of the tough budgetary environment we find ourselves in, we 39 will continue to put the needs of Coloradans first.
40
41 Nothing communicates genuine quality of life better than a safe and secure
42 community. Three years ago, I established the bold goal of making Colorado
43 one of the ten safest states in the country. And we got right to work.
45 Democrats and Republicans came together to pass a common-sense, data-driven 46 public safety plan to crack down on crime and prevent it from happening in the 47 first place. These targeted investments are making a real difference, and from 48 2023 to the same period in 2024, crime rates dropped in almost every category:
49 Almost 20,000 fewer property crimes - down 15%; 21 fewer homicides - down
50 9%; Nearly 8,000 fewer car thefts - a 26% decrease!
51
52 Last year, I called on the legislature to empower the Colorado Bureau of 53 Investigation to crack down on illegal firearm activity. Together, we added a 54 stronger law sponsored by Senator Sullivan, Majority Leader Duran, and 55 Representative Froelich, that has resulted in 62 illegal firearms seized in the

1 past four months alone, making our streets, neighborhoods and communities
2 safer. But to make Colorado the frontrunner in public safety, there's more work 3 ahead.

4
5 This includes boosting Colorado's emergency dispatch system to ensure our 6 brave and dedicated first responders can get where they're needed without 7 delay. It includes working with Representative Armagost and Majority Leader
8 Duran to strengthen the penalty for theft of a firearm, regardless of market 9 value.

11 And while crime rates are down statewide, one area in need of improvement is 12 preventing and reducing youth crime. That is why my budget calls for additional 13 support to prevent crime from happening, expanded resources for youth, and 14 increased bed capacity at the Division of Youth Services, so young adults who 15 do enter the criminal justice system can get back on track and avoid becoming 16 repeat offenders. Under my new proposal, youth offenders who are currently 17 being sent all over the state will be able to stay closer to home and get the 18 support they need faster.

20 Our commitment to public safety extends to all who call our state home -
21 people and animals alike. Livestock theft is unfortunately not a thing of the past,
22 and we are committed to holding cattle rustlers accountable. With local sheriffs
23 and the Brand Board leading the way, I directed our leaders at the Department
24 of Agriculture and Department of Public Safety to coordinate and provide 25 additional support and work closely with local law enforcement to use the full 26 extent of the law to catch and convict wrongdoers.

28 We will continue to support our ranchers, and, I am glad National Western 29 moved the stock show parade back today so I can speak for another hour.

30
31 Safer communities are more humane communities and we should also create 32 and enforce tougher penalties to crack down on illegal wildlife trafficking, 33 which is often linked to other crimes like gun, drug, and human trafficking.

35 Our partners in law enforcement play a key role in making Colorado safer, and 36 I am proud that today we are joined by Arapahoe County Sheriff Tyler Brown,
37 La Plata County Sheriff Sean Smith, Moffat County Sheriff KC Hume, Prowers
38 County Sheriff Sam Zordel, Summit County Sheriff Jaime FitzSimons, Aurora
39 Police Chief Todd Chamberlain, Arvada Police Chief Ed Brady, and leaders
40 from Colorado State Patrol. Thank you for being here and for your commitment 41 to keeping Colorado safe.

43 This election, voters made their voices heard with support for stronger public 44 safety measures, including support for crime victims, investing in law 45 enforcement to help attract and retain quality police officers, and providing 46 more certainty in sentencing for the most serious offenses.

48 I want to thank and congratulate Majority Leader Duran and Representative
49 Froelich, for their leadership on Proposition KK, which will bring valuable 50 support for victims services, school safety, and behavioral health, including for 51 our brave and dedicated veterans. Thank you to all of the veterans here with us 52 today.

54 I'm also confident that, thanks to the action of the voters passing Proposition
55 130, we'll be able to better fund law enforcement, with $350 million in support 56 for hiring, retention, and training.

1 Our brave and dedicated police officers give their time, talent, and tragically
2 sometimes their lives to keep our communities safe. Proposition 130 also 3 provides financial support for the families of law enforcement officers killed in 4 the line of duty. We now have the opportunity to implement this as quickly as 5 possible to ensure no family of a law enforcement officer lost in the line of duty
6 needs to worry about their needs being met. And we can work together to 7 ensure that the family of Golden Officer Evan Dunn, who was tragically killed
8 in the line of duty on November 6, receives this support that was passed the day 9 before his death.

11 We are joined today by Golden Chief of Police Joe Harvey and Officer Dunn's 12 widow, Annalise. Annalise, we extend to you our deepest condolences. Thank 13 you for being with us today.

15 It is now our role and responsibility to implement the will of the voters.

16
17 In addition to funding for public safety, this election, Coloradans voted in favor
18 of a number of measures and— whether you agree with them or not — it is now 19 our responsibility to implement those measures in good faith with fidelity to 20 voter intent.

22 Coloradans voted to establish a veterinary professional associate - like a PA for 23 humans - to help fill workforce shortages and expand access to quality
24 veterinary care. The State Board of Veterinary Medicine will implement this 25 measure and fulfill the will of the voters while ensuring high standards of 26 protection for animals and consumers. And we encourage you to share any input 27 you have with the board.

28
29 Coloradans also voted overwhelmingly to enshrine fundamental freedoms into 30 our Constitution and ensure the state of Colorado remains free, no matter what.
31 This includes a ballot measure to take hate out of our Constitution and allow 32 our legislature to protect the right to marry who you love. And to protect the 33 fundamental right for a woman to make her own reproductive healthcare 34 choices including abortion.

35
36 We have an obligation to the people we serve to implement their will, and 37 where necessary — and only where necessary — pass implementing legislation 38 consistent with the spirit that those measures were passed.

40 In Colorado, we have zero tolerance for those who commit violent crimes
41 whether they are American citizens or not.

43 I hope that President-elect Trump and Congress work together quickly to secure 44 the border, stop human trafficking, and stop the illegal flow of guns and drugs, 45 and we welcome more federal help to detain and deport dangerous criminals.
46 I also hope that Congress finally provides legal pathways to citizenship for 47 Dreamers and those who seek to come out of the shadows to help make 48 Colorado greater.

49
50 But, Colorado will not support efforts to deport American citizens, target those 51 on pending legal status, or break up families, creating orphans of American 52 children whose parents are alive and who came to this country to build a better 53 life for their families.

55

1 We will stay true to the core values upon which this country was built: opening 2 the door of freedom and opportunity for all.

4 We will support businesses who follow state laws to make sure that they can 5 continue to retain their employees who are doing work that is critical to our 6 economy – whether in agriculture, construction, service, or industry. This is 7 both the moral thing to do, and it is key to our economic success.

8
9 Take Sofia, whose name we've changed for her safety. Sofia is a nurse who 10 works day in and day out to provide critical health care to patients. She is a 11 DACA recipient and has been in Colorado for over 20 years.

13 Please take a look at the gallery. You will notice an empty seat. We are not 14 joined by Sofia today because of the grim reality that Sofia and many other 15 immigrants who enrich our communities and strengthen our economy are living 16 in fear.

18 Those who are following our laws and contributing to our economy deserve the 19 opportunity to live the American dream and make Colorado an even more
20 amazing place. Genuine opportunity is all about being able to start a good life
21 and earn a living. It's about making ends meet and still having enough leftover 22 to pursue your dreams. It's about having a clear path to prosperity.

24 That is why I am focused on saving people money on the biggest cost drivers
25 for Coloradans: housing, and transportation, and yes, health care.

26
27 One of my first actions as Governor was to create the Office of Saving People
28 Money on Health Care, led by our fabulous Lieutenant Governor Dianne 29 Primavera, because we have been serious about lowering the cost of living for 30 Coloradans from day one.

32 We've made lifesaving progress: capping the price of insulin, passing bipartisan 33 reinsurance that has reduced rates by nearly 25%, the landmark Colorado 34 Option and nation-leading price transparency legislation. But there is more to 35 be done.

37 Robert Redford, University of Colorado attendee and founder of the 38 world-renowned Sundance Film festival... wisely observed, "problems can 39 become opportunities when the right people come together."

40
41 We will continue to call on the FDA to approve our prescription drug
42 importation plan. We don't always find ourselves on the same side of an issue
43 as Florida. But as the only two states taking much-needed and long overdue 44 steps to cut the costs of prescription drugs by importing them from Canada, our 45 patience wears thin for the FDA slow walking our well-qualified application to 46 import lower cost prescription drugs.

48 We can and we should take additional steps to save people money on 49 prescription drugs, which is why I support the work of Senators Rich and 50 Michaelson-Jenet to protect and expand prescription drug discounts to better 51 serve our most vulnerable.

53 And we've learned through our nation-leading policies to increase hospital price
54 transparency that Coloradans and employers are still paying far too much for 55 hospital services.

56

1 While Coloradans with commercial insurance are paying nearly three times
2 what Medicare pays for hospital services, our safety net providers such as 3 Clinica Family Health and Wellness, Marillac Health in Grand Junction, Denver
4 Health, and Pueblo Community Health Center are being left behind.
5
6 Now is the time for us, alongside Representative Brown and Senator Bridges,
7 to take real action to deal with excessive hospital prices while also protecting 8 our safety net. Together, we can prevent costs from going up and “Defying 9 Gravity.”
10
11 A few months ago, I had the honor of delivering a Colorado kid the one 12 millionth book given free of charge through Dolly Parton’s Imagination Library.
13 As famous Wyoming rancher RuPaul says, “reading is fun-damental.”
15 Reading helps young people cultivate their dreams - dreams that grow as they 16 grow. The path from dreams to skills to prosperous careers in the fields that 17 inspire us is worth fighting for, and that’s what we’re doing in Colorado.
18
19 Last year, thanks to Representative Sirota and the voters, the first class of 20 universal preschool saved families an average of $6,100, springboarding
21 Colorado from 27th to 7th in the nation for preschool enrollment.
23 Beyond the family savings and learning benefits, new research shows that 24 universal preschool drives economic mobility. On average, parents who enroll 25 their kids in universal preschool earn 20% more than parents without access to 26 universal preschool, and long-term studies show the kids will do better too 27 when they grow up.
28
29 Thanks to Speaker McCluskie, Minority Leader Lundeen, and Assistant 30 Majority Leader Bacon, we also created a new school finance formula that 31 focuses on students – not systems. Our task going forward is to now implement
32 that formula, ensuring that schools serving students who are English language 33 learners or who come from poverty receive the resources needed to help 34 students succeed.
35
36 But we must ensure the gains we have made are sustainable. Colorado is an 37 outlier when it comes to school funding – with our current system funding 38 based on students who were enrolled four years ago. We are talking about 39 counting students that attended nearly half a decade ago! To fully fund our new 40 school finance formula and ensure we never have to go back to a budget 41 stabilization factor, we have to start funding students where they are in their 42 schools today in ways tailored to individual needs. It is past time to eliminate 43 this antiquated system that funds empty chairs rather than actual students.
44
45 And, we have a responsibility to guarantee every Colorado student has access
46 to a quality education. This requires creating innovative pathways for students 47 and schools to succeed; no excuses, no exceptions.
48
49 Today, tragically, there are “education deserts” – as President Coleman calls
50 them – in Colorado where 90% of students - around 22 in a class of 25 - are 51 behind grade level in math and reading. That is unacceptable.
52
53 We need to clear the way for these students to get back on track by making it
54 easier for high quality and innovative schools to start and operate in Colorado, 55 supporting students whether in a traditional district or a charter school, and 56 giving parents the ability to choose the best option for their kids.

1 And there are great examples of what works! Global Village Academy North
2 in Thornton serves over 50% low income students, and over 80% of 8th graders
3 are at grade level or above in reading, and over 90% in writing. Yes, we CAN 4 do it. This school is changing lives for the better, and we are thrilled Head of 5 School Nicole Wetzel and Principal Chelsea Byrd are here with us today.
6
7 And there is more to be done to make achievement like this the norm for district
8 schools, innovation schools, and charter schools, because every student means 9 every student.
11 As a state we are firmly focused on winning the future. And we are putting the 12 tools in place to do so: including making the first two years of higher education 13 free for many Colorado students thanks to Representatives Bird and Taggart, 14 and Senator Kirkmeyer.
15
16 This year, I have the honor of serving as Chair of the bipartisan National 17 Governors Association. My Chair's Initiative, Let's Get Ready: Educating All 18 Americans for Success, is all about preparing students for real life and our 19 economy for real success. We're looking at how we can best ensure learners 20 develop the skills and talents they need to succeed in today and tomorrow's job 21 market.
22
23 Our mission is to learn how to better measure success so we can expand and 24 scale what works, and change or adjust what doesn't.
25
26 This is one of many ways I am partnering with governors - both Democrats and 27 Republicans, from states across the country - to tackle the challenges and 28 embrace the opportunities that cross state lines and unify us as a nation.
29
30 That means stepping up to support one another. We are sending critical 31 firefighting resources including Multi Mission Aircraft, fire engines, and 32 firefighters to California as they face devastating fires. In Colorado we are 33 unfortunately no stranger to wildfires, and we work better together in our times 34 of need. Every step of the way, we take lessons and inspiration from the 35 breathtaking nature around us.
37 The thin bark of the Lodgepole Pine is quickly burnt when wildfire strikes. But 38 instead of destroying the trees, fire melts a resin that seals shut the cones. When 39 the resin melts, the seeds open and spread, returning life to the burn scar.
40
41 This is the perspective - finding opportunity in obstacles - that I am taking with 42 me as we drive progress and prosperity - as we climb higher - in the year ahead.
44 Nearly 130 years ago, Katharine Lee Bates wrote the iconic words of "America
45 the Beautiful," from atop Pikes Peak. Pikes Peak remains a national treasure
46 today, and I am excited that Colorado Parks and Wildlife is partnering to better
47 care for and expand recreational opportunities on America's peak.
48
49 Nearly a century and a half later, Colorado continues to lead and inspire. Next
50 year, we will celebrate our great State's 150th birthday, the same year America
51 celebrates our 250th birthday.
52
53 Over the last 150 years, we have faced trials and tests. We have weathered 54 challenges and risen above, always coming out on the side of freedom.

1 In the Free State of Colorado, it's your body, it's your marriage, it's your 2 choice.

3
4 In the Free State of Colorado, diversity is a strength, not a threat.

5
6 In the Free State of Colorado, we open the door to opportunity, to abundance,
7 to prosperity. This is a Colorado for All.

8
9 This is the State of our State: Strong, Prosperous, Free. Always striving to 10 Climb Higher. Now let's get to work, and let's get it done. Thank you. God 11 bless you all, God bless Colorado, God bless the United States of America.

Chief Justice Monica M. Marquez

Speaker McCluskie, Senate President Coleman, distinguished members of the House of Representatives and Senate.

Fourteen years ago, I stood in the old Supreme Court chambers at the other end of this beautiful building and took the oath of office as the supreme court's newest justice. I was 41 years old, and fresh from the Colorado Attorney General's Office. Back then, virtual court proceedings did not exist. None of my colleagues had ever heard of Zoom. We were holding oral arguments in a converted Starbucks on the first floor of the Denver Post building because the Ralph Carr Center was just a hole in the ground. And I was a lot less gray.

Speaking as a kid who grew up in Grand Junction and who never in a million years would have dreamed it was possible: It is an honor to stand before you today as Colorado's newest chief justice. For those who are curious, I'm the state's third female chief justice; its second chief to hail from the western slope; and the first Latina to serve in this role. I'm grateful to have my family here: my parents, Lorenzo and Cherry Márquez, my sister Christine Márquez and her husband Andrew Hudson, my niece Julia, and my spouse of 26 years, Sheila Barthel.

1 The Márquez family roots run deep in the Antonito area of the San Luis Valley.
2 This past fall, we were in the Valley for a Márquez family reunion. Sitting
3 around the campfire, I heard stories about our family roots tracing back more
4 than 11 generations through land that is now southern Colorado and northern 5 New Mexico. I heard about several Pueblo Indian grandmothers who married
6 into the family. I also heard lots of tales about my great-great grandmother, 7 Juanita Ortega, who lived among the Apache at some point in her life and 8 homesteaded in the mountains near Las Mesitas. Grandma Ortega, like all our 9 abuelitas, stood about this high. But she was larger than life. She was known in 10 the Valley as one fierce mujer and a darn good shot, as some would-be cattle 11 thieves found out one night when (according to family legend) one of them lost 12 the hat right off his head.

14 I am grateful for my San Luis Valley and western slope roots. Those roots have 15 anchored me and our family with a deep love for this State and a rich family 16 tradition of public service. That rural Colorado upbringing has given me the 17 strength to show up and give 110% every day, even when the work is hard and 18 unforgiving. I bring that perspective and those values to my work as a justice 19 and to my role as chief.

20
21 Our courts serve the people of Colorado in every county in the state, including 22 the front range and the eastern plains—communities with widely varying needs
23 and resources. The Department has around 4,000 employees, including 24 approximately 400 judges and magistrates. We handle well over half a million 25 cases every year and supervise around 65,000 individuals on probation. When 26 people think about the court system, most probably think about our criminal 27 dockets. But our judges make thousands of weighty decisions every day in civil 28 matters that affect families, children, businesses, local communities -- even 29 water and the environment.

31 We do not control our workload. We have to be ready for everything that comes 32 in the door. The most precious resource we have is time – time to properly 33 handle all the cases that come our way. Time to resolve disputes consistent with 34 the law, including the statutory deadlines and procedures established by the 35 General Assembly. The work we do is difficult, and it takes a toll. Every day, 36 our judges, court staff, and probation officers encounter people from all walks
37 of life who are navigating the worst experiences of their lives – whether it 38 involves addiction, a mental health crisis, divorce, a bitter custody dispute, an 39 eviction, life-altering injuries from an accident, or the trauma of a violent crime.
40 Our employees are compassionate and mission-driven. Our people view their 41 work at Judicial not as a job, but as a calling to serve their communities; they 42 strive to treat every person they encounter with dignity and respect. It is an 43 honor to serve with them. But right now, we need some relief. We need 44 additional judicial officers in several district and county courts around the state
45 to ensure that Colorado families and businesses receive timely justice.

46
47 The past five years have been a uniquely challenging period for the Branch. The 48 pivot to virtual proceedings, budget cuts, and intense public scrutiny have made 49 this journey especially difficult, as those who know me best have seen up close.
50 (Sheila likes to joke, usually at 5am when my hair is sticking out and I am
51 standing in the kitchen with my cup of coffee in one hand, squinting at work 52 email on my phone, “I wish the world could see just how glamorous it is to be 53 a supreme court justice.”)

55

1 Unfortunately, our jobs have been made more challenging in recent years by 2 declining courtroom civility, virtual courtroom disruptors, polarizing rhetoric,
3 and threats to our security.

4
5 In just the last 13 months, we have had a fatal shooting just outside the 6 courthouse in Colorado Springs; a gunman who shot his way into the Ralph
7 Carr building and set a fire in the office tower; a defendant who died by suicide
8 at the Lindsey Flanagan Courthouse in Denver; a bomb threat at the Alamosa
9 courthouse; and a spate of death threats against judges around the state. This is 10 the reality for our judicial officers and court staff. Colorado is not alone; this is 11 an issue across the country and the topic of an upcoming conference of the 12 nation's chief justices.

13
14 Compounding this already difficult live environment, our virtual courtrooms
15 across the state have been the targets of coordinated attacks by courtroom 16 disruptors – individuals who sneak into virtual courtrooms, sometimes posing 17 as actual parties or witnesses, and hijack the proceedings by screaming racial 18 epithets at litigants and judges, and streaming pornographic, racist, or violent
19 video. I have heard directly from several judges about the mental and emotional 20 impact these nearly daily attacks have had on them and their staff. Virtual 21 proceedings have now become a regular feature of our courts, and we have to 22 be able to provide a safe and neutral courtroom environment for litigants, 23 judges, staff, and the public. Our challenge is the business meeting platform we 24 quickly pivoted to during the pandemic, was never designed to function as a
25 digital courtroom. Our need for a true digital courtroom solution is a 26 fundamental question of public safety. We thank the Joint Budget Committee 27 for authorizing emergency funding to issue an RFP for this project. We will be 28 asking for the legislature's help this year to improve physical security for our 29 judges and staff, and we look forward to selecting and implementing a digital 30 courtroom solution appropriately tailored to the work of our courts.

31
32 The last five years have also brought an influx of new people and new leaders 33 throughout the Branch. Much of our core work force (judicial clerks and 34 probation officers) has joined the Branch within the last five years. More than 35 50% of our judges were appointed in 2020 or later. And roughly 80% of our 36 chief judges have been in their leadership roles for only a handful of years.

38 This transformation of the Department has presented a fertile environment for 39 the seeds of our Workplace Culture Initiative to take root.

40
41 Our Workplace Culture Initiative is grounded in new Mission, Vision, and 42 Values statements developed by employees and district leaders across the state 43 at every level of the Department. These anchoring principles reflect who we are, 44 what we do, and the organization we strive to be.

45
46 I have been especially excited to see our Branch values come to life through the 47 work we do each day.

49 Our problem-solving courts around the state are wonderful examples of our 50 commitment to innovative approaches that assist veterans and people with 51 substance abuse issues or competency challenges stay out of the criminal justice
52 system. By collaborating with treatment providers and other community 53 partners our judges can find solutions that best serve the entire community, 54 including families who may need support caring for a loved one. These 55 programs represent the good we can do when judicial officers have the 56 necessary time to address the specific needs of a given case. Innovative

1 programs like these change people's lives, reduce recidivism, and ultimately 2 save the state money by tapping into federal benefits and avoiding the costs of 3 incarceration.

4
5 Our internship pipeline programs with local colleges are helping us to fill our 6 critical need for court interpreters. And our warrant clearance events assist 7 people in clearing old outstanding warrants. This kind of meaningful
8 community engagement helps promote trust and faith in our courts.

9
10 We are fostering equal access to justice through our new Licensed Legal 11 Paraprofessionals (LLPs). These individuals are authorized to handle relatively 12 simple domestic relations matters and can assist litigants who could use help
13 from a professional but who cannot afford an attorney. We appreciate your help 14 last legislative session passing a bill recognizing the professional status of 15 LLPs.

17 Last year we launched a Magistrate Wellness and Support Committee (chaired 18 by Chief Judges Michelle Amico and Susan Blanco) to be more inclusive of 19 these judicial officers. This new committee is looking holistically at the work 20 of our magistrates and developing recommendations regarding recruitment, 21 training, leave support/wellbeing, evaluations, and supervision.

23 Our commitment to acting with integrity and transparency is reflected in the 24 completely revamped Chief Justice Directive 95-01, which sets forth the 25 responsibilities of our chief judges. This year we are developing evaluation 26 processes for chief judges so that employees can provide meaningful feedback 27 on their work as district leaders. My goal is to develop a similar process to 28 provide feedback to the chief justice as well.

29
30 Conversations about our values are starting to happen organically. During a 31 recent legislative review training session, a group of over 50 employees at the 32 State Court Administrator's Office spent an hour discussing how our values as 33 an organization should be reflected in our review of legislation and our 34 interactions with legislators, legislative staff, and stakeholders. These kinds of 35 conversations are happening all across the Branch now, and it is influencing 36 how we interact and work – including with all of you.

37
38 We will further cultivate our mission, vision, and values by incorporating these 39 principles and workplace expectations into the recruitment, onboarding, and 40 training of our new employees and judges. We have created a statewide 41 Training Committee to better align the training needs of our employees with the 42 offerings provided by State Court Administrator's Office and our peer training
43 specialists. And we plan to develop the next generation of judicial education so 44 that our judges receive robust training when they first take the bench or when 45 they take on a new docket. I want to ensure that our judges are fully equipped 46 to hit the ground running, and that parties and the public have confidence in the 47 work of our courts. We anticipate reaching out for stakeholder input as part of 48 this development.

49
50 These investments are critical because the work we do can be life-altering. Just 51 this week, one of our probation officers in the 18th Judicial District received an 52 email from a probationer expressing his gratitude:

54 You've not only helped me meet the conditions of my probation, but you also 55 shaped me into the man I never thought I could become. . . .Through your 56 guidance, I've learned to set goals for myself, build discipline, build better

1 relationships, and approach life with a sense of purpose. . . . You were more
2 than just my probation officer – you were a coach, a motivator, and sometimes
3 even a tough-love mentor who always had my best interest at heart. You saw
4 potential in me when I couldn't see it in myself and you helped me turn that 5 potential into reality. . . . I promise to honor the work we've done together by 6 continuing to grow and make choices that reflect the man I've become. . . . I'll 7 never forget you or the impact you've had on my life. Thank you . . . for 8 believing in me and helping me believe in myself.
9

10 Over the last few years, we have done a great deal of internal reflection and 11 review. We are following through on Chief Justice Boatright's promise to get 12 this right. Our meaningful investments are paying off, and I am confident we 13 are moving in the right direction. We are shifting from a state of perpetual 14 reaction to one of thoughtful and proactive planning for our future.
15

16 That future, however, requires additional resources. To be specific, it requires 17 additional judges to address the growing workload and docket delays in county 18 and district courts. I want to thank Senators Dylan Roberts and Lisa Frizell for 19 recognizing this need and introducing SB 25-024, our request for new judges.
20

21 The state is absorbing hundreds of domestic violence cases following Aurora's 22 announcement that it will no longer prosecute domestic violence cases in 23 municipal court. Virtual proceedings are placing more demands on judge and 24 staff time. Several legislative reforms have expanded the opportunities for 25 parents and children to be heard in child welfare cases, added opportunities to 26 seal criminal records; created opportunities for tenants to be heard in evictions; 27 mandated the use of body cameras, which creates significant additional 28 evidence that must be reviewed in many cases. These changes create 29 appropriate additional protections for litigants; but implementation of these 30 protections necessarily adds to our judges' workload.
31

32 Too many of our judges are routinely working nights and weekends, unable to 33 take time off to attend training, or take care of sick family members, let alone
34 tend to their own health. For judges in the jurisdictions targeted in the bill, the 35 current situation is unsustainable. We cannot ask judges day in and day out to 36 make consequential decisions impacting peoples lives when they are running
37 on empty tanks. In recognition of the budget realities this year, our judge 38 request does not seek to fully staff our courts; it would merely provide some 39 relief to those districts with the greatest need.
40

41 This request is ultimately about ensuring that the people of Colorado receive 42 timely, fair, and wise resolution of their cases. It is also about helping our 43 judges keep their heads above water. We are starting to lose judges who are 44 choosing to leave because the workload is unsustainable. We are also seeing an 45 alarming drop off in applications for our judge vacancies, even in our metro 46 areas. Although we are actively working on outreach and recruitment, the 47 current trends do not bode well for the future of our judiciary, or our state. What 48 our judges need is hope – hope that relief is coming. I ask for your support in 49 providing that relief.
50

51 As I have hinted, the past 5 years have been a real crucible – but we have 52 emerged stronger and better. My colleagues are all magnificently intelligent, 53 warm, compassionate, funny, and dedicated public servants.

1 Brian Boatright is perhaps the kindest leader I've ever worked with. He never
2 brings attention to himself, and he overflows with integrity. If he borrows
3 anything from you, returns it then in better condition than when he took them.
4 Justice Boatright deserves enormous credit for leading the Branch through some 5 very difficult times. We are all better for his quiet, humble, and courageous 6 leadership.
7
8 You're as likely to see Will Hood at a Nuggets game or the movie theater as 9 you are in the hallways of the Ralph Carr Center. Justice Hood is a devoted 10 sports fan and a film buff. He's a champion when it comes to seeing all sides 11 to a situation, and his journalism background makes him a pithy writer. He's 12 also perpetually hungry, so we all keep plenty of snacks on hand to keep him 13 fed.
14
15 Don't let Richard Gabriel's dress shirts and cufflinks fool you. Yes, he has a 16 formal side to his personality, but he cares deeply about individuals — he is 17 always the first person to offer support, congratulations, and words of 18 encouragement. He is a champion of civility and professionalism. He also 19 moonlights as a professional trumpeter and can totally hold his own in any 20 nightclub.
22 Melissa Hart brings intellect, passion, and energy to everything she does. She 23 is fearless; willing to ask the hard questions and push us to have difficult and 24 honest conversations. Justice Hart is as genuine and authentic as anyone I know.
25 She cares deeply about access to justice, routinely takes on hard projects, and 26 importantly, she gets things done.
27
28 Carlos Samour brings his rich trial court experience to our discussions.
29 Although he gives off a serious vibe, he definitely has a sense of humor, as 30 reflected by the giant poster of the movie My Cousin Vinny in his chambers.
31 Justice Samour loves to fold pop culture references into his writing, and he's 32 secretly devoted to his two little dogs, Nacho Libre and Tres Leches. He's also 33 a Starbucks addict.
34
35 Underestimate Maria at your own peril. She is a master of finding the hidden 36 connections, patterns, and areas of opportunity. She warm and generous, 37 extremely curious, and brings a beginner's mind to situations that are new to 38 her. On the other hand, beware; her BS detector is extremely well tuned. Lucky
39 for us (and especially Justice Hood), she loves to mother us all with her 40 excellent cooking.
41
42 Cheryl has more experience at the supreme court than any of the justices.
43 Actually, more than all of us combined, I think. As the clerk of court, she is 44 utterly reliable. She keeps the trains running on time and has always thought
45 through every detail of everything. Twice. Her conscientiousness has saved us 46 from making any number of embarrassing mistakes. She is an avid runner and 47 a devoted mother.
48
49 Judge Jeff Pilkington is the chief judge in the 1st Judicial District and one of our 50 new co-chairs of the chief judge council. Although initially a skeptic, Judge
51 Pilkington has become one of the greatest champions of our Workplace Culture
52 Initiative. I can also count on him to call out every typo or grammatical error in 53 a chief justice directive. We are fortunate to have his leadership and vision.
54

1 Judge Susan Blanco is the chief in the 8th Judicial District and the other new 2 co-chair of the chief judge council. She is allergic to the word “no.” She is 3 creative, innovative, and always questions the why. She always takes on more
4 than her fair share of the work, and she always delivers. In her relatively short 5 time as a chief judge, she has become a leader among chief judges around the 6 state.

8 Steven Vasconcellos is our State Court Administrator. He has literally grown 9 up in the Branch and his career path has given him a unique perspective. He has 10 both strategic vision, but also engage in the day-to-day details. He’s reliable,
11 trustworthy, and a Formula 1 superfan, the kind that gets up at 3am to watch 12 races live halfway around the globe. He tries unsuccessfully to hide his 13 nerdiness.

14
15 Andy Rottman is Counsel to the Chief Justice. He has served now under four 16 different chiefs, and his wealth of experience and institutional history is 17 invaluable. Andy is one of the unsung heroes of the Branch. I do not know a 18 more competent, honest, or dedicated public servant. He never cracks a smile, 19 but I’m working on trying to get him to laugh, at least once, during my tenure 20 as chief.

22 In closing, the past few years have taught me that the rule of law is so precious,
23 and fragile. The independence of our judiciary is so precious – and fragile. Both 24 are critical to our democratic system of government, which ultimately depends 25 on the individuals who occupy these positions of leadership; people who choose 26 to wield their power fairly and justly.

27
28 I am grateful and honored to be a public servant in a state where our leaders
29 fulfill that promise every day in the work that they do. I’m grateful and honored
30 to serve as your chief justice, and to work alongside an army of incredible 31 judicial officers who make brave and consequential decisions every day that 32 affect the lives of all Coloradans. My 4,000 colleagues across the Branch work 33 tirelessly and with distinction, fairness, and integrity -- each and every day.
34 Please assist us as we carry out our mission. Our ability to deliver timely justice 35 to Colorado’s families and businesses is crucial to sustaining the public’s trust 36 in our courts.

37
38 Thank you.

39

24 25 26 27 ADDRESS BY CHAIRMAN BAKER

28
29 Maykh!

30
31 Members of the Colorado House of Representatives and the Colorado Senate, 32 staff, and guests. Thank you for the opportunity to address you today. My name 33 is Melvin J. Baker, I am the Chairman of the Southern Ute Indian Tribe.

34
35 When I look around this room, I am reminded of the special relationships we 36 have developed with each one of you, on both sides of the aisle. With President
37 Coleman, Majority Leader Rodriguez, Majority Chair Roberts, Minority Leader
38 Lundeen, Speaker McCluskie, Majority Leader Duran, and Minority Leader
39 Pugliese. Some of you have visited us on the Reservation like Leader Duran, 40 Leader Rodriguez, Senator Cleave Simpson, and Representative Joseph. And 41 some of you have danced with us in our Bear Dance like Senator Danielson.

42
43 Much has changed over the past decades. Today, our Tribe has a strong 44 government-to-government relationship with the State of Colorado. As the 45 Governor stated last week, our values are not dependent on what happens in 46 Washington, D.C. or anywhere else in the country. State and Tribal relations 47 vary significantly across the Country and are often strained. Colorado serves as 48 a model for state-tribal relations. This relationship underscores our inherent 49 sovereignty and commitment to collaborative governance. In Colorado, we 50 strive to consult and collaborate for the common good.

51
52 We must never forget that the mountains, rivers, and plateaus across this 53 breathtaking state bear the mark of the Ute people. Our history is woven into the 54 very soul of this land. The Utes are the oldest continuous inhabitants of what 55 is now the State of Colorado. In our language, we are called the "Nuuchiu"
56 which means "The People." Unlike other Tribes, we do not have a migration

1 story. According to our Creation story, we were placed in the Rocky Mountains
2 by the Creator who promised “The Utes, even though they are few in number,
3 will be the mightiest and most valiant of heart.”
4

5 The Nuuchiu are resilient. We are still here, fighting and advocating every day
6 for our people and the lands we inhabit.
7

8 The Ute Way of Life is rooted in a deep and enduring connection to this land.
9 We have always understood that our well-being is intertwined with the health
10 of the ecosystem. Conservation and respect for our natural resources are 11 fundamental to who we are.
12

13 The lands of the Southern Ute Indian Tribe were, at one time, much larger. In 14 1849, we first entered into a Treaty with the United States government
15 establishing a boundary between the Ute Nation, which was comprised of seven 16 Ute bands, and the United States. This Reservation stretched across the western 17 third of the state, from the New Mexico border through Delta, Montrose, and 18 almost to Steamboat Springs.
19

20 But as mining companies sought to exploit the minerals on our lands, that 21 Treaty and successive Treaties with the Utes were repeatedly broken. In the 22 1870’s, Felix Brunot, through deception, convinced the Ute bands to, once 23 again, give up more land to benefit mining companies who wanted access to the 24 minerals in the San Juan mountains. Although the evidence of fraud in the 25 negotiations was evident, Congress confirmed the Brunot Agreement in 1874, 26 leading to the loss of 3.7 million acres of Ute homeland. Once again, the 27 commitments of the United States to the Nuuchiu were disregarded for the 28 economic benefit of a few.
29

30 Our current Reservation was established by treaty in 1878 in Pagosa Springs.
31 Today, the Mouache and Kaputa bands comprise the Southern Ute Indian Tribe
32 near Ignacio, Colorado. The Weenuchiu, now known as the Ute Mountain Utes, 33 are headquartered in Towaoc, Colorado. The Tabeguache, Grand, Yampa, and 34 Uintah bands comprise the Ute Indian Tribe located on the Uintah-Ouray
35 Reservation near Fort Duchesne, Utah.

37 We have close to 1500 Tribal Members, about 1000 of whom live on the 38 Reservation. Our Reservation is 72 miles long and 15 miles wide. It is 39 checkerboarded with Tribal trust lands, Indian allotments, tracts privately 40 owned by non-Natives, tracts owned by the Tribe or Native Americans, and 41 Bureau of Reclamation and National Forest land. As a result, the Tribe must 42 navigate jurisdictional and governance complexities. Jurisdictional gaps leave 43 our communities vulnerable to crime and undermine our ability to deliver 44 justice. The Missing and Murdered Indigenous Relative crisis is a stark 45 reminder of the urgent need for change and improved coordination. We must 46 work together to ensure the safety and well-being of all Native women, men, 47 and children. Despite these complexities, our Reservation is our home, and we 48 intend to preserve it and protect our sovereignty.
49

50 Despite the loss of substantial resources through the violation of our Treaty 51 rights, we have utilized those natural and economic resources that remain on 52 our lands to provide a future for our people and to benefit the broader 53 community.
55

1 Through foresight, financial planning, and technical expertise, I am proud to say
2 the Southern Ute Indian Tribe is a leader across Indian country. As a developer
3 of energy resources, real estate, construction, and private equity, our Tribe is the 4 largest employer in La Plata County with over 1,000 employees. We are well
5 respected for our financial integrity. Last year, we were honored to have our 6 Triple A credit rating reaffirmed, a rating that is higher than that of the federal 7 government. This reflects the Tribe's ability to meet financial commitments and 8 uphold a robust financial profile, even in the face of national and global 9 economic challenges. Our Tribe was the first in the nation to receive this rating 10 in 2001, and we have maintained this status since.

11
12 Our Tribe is a unique and a critical partner for the State. Let me be perfectly
13 clear: The Tribe makes payments in lieu of taxes. We have longstanding tax 14 compacts with the State and our adjoining Counties. We have paid tens of 15 millions of dollars to support community services. We honor our compacts with 16 the State, just like the State should honor its compacts with and promises to us.
17 In addition, businesses located on the Reservation provide substantial revenue 18 to state and local governments.

20 But what is unique is that we provide services to residents of Colorado who are 21 not members of our Tribe. Our Reservation is home to over 10,000 Native and 22 Non-Native Colorado residents and families. And when it comes to services, 23 those are often provided by the Tribe at no cost to the State. Here are some 24 examples:

26 We provide health care for over 2100 patients, and almost 40,000 patient visits
27 annually through a Tribal Member health benefit plan. We spend millions 28 providing social services, law enforcement, detention and judicial services for 29 all of the Native population within the Reservation boundaries. We provide a 30 robust and culturally responsive elementary education for children, including 31 Tribal descendants, through our Montessori Academy. We regulate air quality
32 under the Clean Air Act on the Reservation and maintain water quality
33 standards exceeding those of the state and federal governments. We maintain 34 the Pine River Indian Irrigation Project which brings water to tribal and 35 non-tribal farmers on the Reservation. This system is a federal project, and we 36 have absorbed the costs associated with maintenance for the benefit of these 37 farmers and ranchers for decades.

38
39 There is a beautiful, modern, hospital in La Plata County – because the Tribe 40 provided the land for it and donated millions for the medical care it provides.

41
42 There is a housing crisis. Last week, the Governor talked about the need to 43 tackle this crisis. We are doing that on the Southern Ute Indian Reservation.
44 Today, the Tribe is utilizing its own resources to bring affordable housing to the 45 community so that necessary employees, including educators, health care 46 workers, and first responders, have affordable housing.

47
48 Recognizing the transformative potential of technology, we partnered with 49 Panda Biotech last June to launch the largest zero-waste hemp processing
50 facility in the Western Hemisphere in northern Texas. Closer to home,
51 leveraging federal and state grants and Tribal resources, we successfully 52 deployed a broadband fiber network serving the Town of Ignacio and 53 Reservation residents, both Tribal and non-Tribal.

1 Rural communities across our state, including many within the Southern Ute
2 Indian Reservation, face significant barriers to accessing affordable and reliable
3 high-speed internet. In 2020, as we faced the COVID lockdown, children could 4 not get access to the internet to attend school, and elders could not get access
5 to telehealth. However, today the Tribe has developed critical infrastructure
6 which provides highspeed internet access to residents and businesses in Ignacio
7 and throughout the Reservation, unlocking new opportunities in education, 8 healthcare, economic development, and overall quality of life while 9 empowering small businesses, schools, and local offices. This project will 10 directly benefit 1,110 service addresses as of this month and as this project
11 expands this year, we anticipate serving more Tribal and non-Tribal addresses 12 as our teams have installed over 450,000 feet of conduit. Our project goal is to 13 service over 6,000 addresses in the next three years. And equally important, we 14 are partnering with adjoining Counties including LaPlata County to ensure that 15 this technology benefits the entire region.

17 We strive to build upon the accomplishments of past leaders, working tirelessly 18 to create a brighter future for our Native and local youth. As a leader, I am 19 deeply honored to advocate for policies and practices that prioritize their 20 well-being and create opportunities for their success.

22 In looking at our unique State-Tribal relationship, this past year, we were 23 honored to welcome the historic American Indian Affairs Interim Committee 24 in their efforts to build better relationships between the Native communities and 25 this body. We greatly appreciated their visit to our Reservation this past August, 26 as well as their willingness to understand our concerns.

28 As we look ahead to this session, I implore you to please remember these 29 principles that serve as the foundation of our relationship and are essential to 30 our shared progress:

31
32 First, mutual recognition and respect of each other's sovereignty

33
34 As self-governing entities, we each have our own laws, codes, and processes.
35 As we move forward together in this legislative session and beyond, I
36 encourage you to please remember your neighbors: the Southern Ute Indian 37 Tribe and the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe. This recognition of sovereignty 38 necessitates meaningful conversations and a willingness to agree to disagree but 39 maintain respect for one another.

40
41 Second, Consultation. I look forward to developing and strengthening our 42 relationship in the years to come. Consultation is a critical component, 43 especially on legislation or policy that may affect one or both parties. This 44 consultation should be an open exchange of information and perspectives, 45 ensuring Tribal voices are heard and considered. To be meaningful, this 46 consultation must take place early in the legislative process, not at the last 47 minute or as an afterthought. By working together, we can identify potential
48 impacts of legislation on Tribal communities and explore solutions that benefit 49 all parties.

50
51 Finally, Cooperation. Unity in diversity and a commitment to cooperation is key
52 to our shared success. Our social and economic well-being are heavily 53 intertwined. This applies to everything from social programs and education to 54 infrastructure to civic participation, economic growth, and environmental and 55 resource protection.

1 This cooperative spirit, even in the face of disagreement, is the cornerstone of 2 a strong and resilient relationship. It allows us to leverage the diverse strengths
3 and perspectives of our citizens, fostering innovation and tackling complex 4 challenges more effectively.

5
6 By working together, we can bridge divides, build trust, and create a sense of 7 shared purpose. Ultimately, this cooperation is the fuel that propels us forward,
8 enabling us to progress not just as individuals, but as united Coloradans.

9
10 I encourage all members of this body to join me in upholding these principles 11 of mutual recognition, consultation, and cooperation.

12
13 In this legislative session we hope to build upon the progress made during last 14 year's session and through the work of the American Indian Affairs Interim
15 Committee. We have three priorities.

16
17 The first is a robust State Indian Child Welfare law. ICWA, or the Indian Child 18 Welfare Act, was enacted by Congress nearly fifty years ago to combat the 19 alarming rate of state court proceedings where Native American children were 20 being removed from their families and placed with non-Indian families. The 21 House Report for that law cited studies showing that 25-35% of all Indian 22 children had been removed from their families and placed in foster, adoptive,
23 or governmental care. This wholesale separation of Native families deprived 24 Native children of the right and honor of knowing their culture and further 25 eroded the survival of Tribes' cultures. ICWA regulates proceedings for 26 termination of parental rights, adoptions, and foster care placement involving 27 Native children. It supports tribal control over Native family matters.

28
29 Since 2002, Colorado has had ICWA provisions incorporated into state law, and 30 the Colorado General Assembly has amended that law several times. In recent 31 years, state and federal court decisions have weakened the protections afforded 32 by state and federal law. Since 2023, the Tribe has been working with 33 stakeholders around the State to draft legislation that would strengthen ICWA
34 at the state level and put Colorado on par with other states that have achieved
35 the gold standard in child welfare protection. The bill that has been drafted by 36 Tribes and other experts and stakeholders throughout the state will be ready for 37 introduction this session.

38
39 As I said earlier, the relationship between Colorado and the 40 federally-recognized Tribes in the state is a model for other states and tribes.
41 Continuing that reputation, Colorado should be at the forefront of state ICWA
42 legislation. We appreciate Majority Leader Duran, Representative Joseph and 43 Senator Danielson for their sponsorship of this legislation.

45 The second is a general legislative exclusion for the Tribe's activities within the 46 Reservation boundaries. As you have learned, jurisdiction on the Reservation
47 is a mix of tribal, federal, and state law. But the general rule is that states do not 48 have jurisdiction over Tribes. Not only that, but the rules that apply throughout 49 the state do not work well on the Reservation because of the jurisdictional mix.
50 Often state laws are passed without consideration of their effect within the 51 Reservation, whether that impact is to impermissibly regulate the Tribe itself,
52 or to wade into an area where the Tribe, rather than the State, has jurisdiction, 53 such as in air quality. Laws that are drafted to apply generally throughout the 54 state, without consideration of, let alone mention of, the Tribes leads to 55 ambiguity and increases the likelihood of jurisdictional disputes. It leads the

1 Tribes to wonder if the State is purporting to regulate the Tribe's activities,
2 which is prohibited by federal law. It leads regulated entities to wonder if the 3 State is purporting to replace the Tribe as regulator.

4
5 For those reasons, on multiple occasions we find ourselves requesting carve
6 outs in legislation for Reservation land. In recent years, as examples, we have 7 sought exclusionary language in a bill related to water use in oil and gas
8 operations, a dredge and fill bill, and a bill regarding energy and carbon 9 management. The Tribe is seeking a law establishing a rule of construction that 10 would apply to future Colorado laws and would address how those laws relate 11 to the Tribe and the Reservation. We shared draft language with the Interim 12 Committee this summer and have been working with the local counties to 13 ensure that the bill is clear. We appreciate Senator Simpson's sponsorship of 14 this legislation.

15
16 The third is a law requiring the state to recognize warrants issued by tribal 17 courts. All of us here are trying to keep our communities safe. After all, that is 18 a basic expectation of us from our constituents. But it is more difficult in Indian 19 Country. That is because a defendant can evade the jurisdiction of the Tribe 20 simply by leaving the Reservation. For example, a Native American could 21 assault a child, our Tribal Court could issue a warrant for that person's arrest,
22 the person could go to another county, off-Reservation, and the court there 23 would not recognize the tribal court order and would allow the person to go
24 free. Again, the cooperative relationship between the Tribe and other 25 governments has paid off. The Chief Judge in La Plata County has entered a 26 court rule that recognizes tribal warrants, so we have been able to address this 27 issue to a limited extent in our immediate region. But that is just one county.
28 This public safety issue could be easily addressed by legislation requiring state
29 courts to give full faith and credit to an arrest warrant issued by a tribal court
30 and allowing an arresting officer in the state to apprehend the person identified 31 in the warrant. That legislation is now pending, SB 25-009.

32
33 We thank Senator Roberts, Senator Danielson, and Representative Weinberg 34 for sponsoring this bill to require recognition of Tribal Court Orders, and we 35 hope it will receive the General Assembly's full support.

36
37 Finally, focusing on the subject of keeping our communities safe, I encourage 38 everyone here to support the Child Sexual Abuse Accountability Amendment 39 sponsored by Senator's Danielson and Jenet and Majority Leader Duran. The 40 proposed amendment holds profound significance for all Coloradans, but is 41 particularly important for Indigenous communities, including for the two 42 federally recognized Indian Tribes in Colorado: the Southern Ute Indian Tribe
43 and the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe. Sexual violence and the associated trauma
44 have plagued Indigenous youth for generations, with the rates of sexual abuse
45 of children being roughly three to four times higher in Native communities than 46 the population at large. Representative of the crisis are the sexual atrocities
47 committed against Native children who were forced to attend residential 48 boarding schools in an effort by the federal government to eradicate Native
49 culture. As the federal government has acknowledged, Native children in these 50 schools were subject to "rampant physical, sexual, and emotional abuse." A 51 recent study of 22 of the more than 500 residential boarding schools operated 52 or financed by the federal government documented more than 1000 cases of 53 sexual abuse committed against Native children by their boarding school 54 caretakers, with the majority of those cases being in the 1950's and 1960's.

55
56

1 The wounds experienced by child sexual abuse are lifelong. Children subject
2 to sexual abuse experience higher rates of suicide, depression, alcoholism,
3 addiction, and domestic violence. Unless addressed, the trauma suffered 4 continues from generation to generation. But there were no options for many 5 Native children in the legal system. Tribal Courts could not prosecute
6 non-Indian perpetrators, and the federal government did not prosecute them.

7
8 This legislation provides those who have suffered abuse as children the 9 opportunity to confront their abusers and those who facilitated them in state 10 court. We know that those who abuse children do not stop at one child. They 11 do it over and over again. Colorado should not be a safe haven for child abusers
12 and those who supported them. Child abuse is not a partisan issue. Please pass
13 the Child Sexual Abuse Accountability Amendment so the trauma that Native
14 Children have suffered can come to an end.

15
16 The Southern Ute Indian Tribe and the State of Colorado share a distinct and 17 enduring partnership. This vital relationship must be cherished and upheld.
18 While disagreements may arise, our commitment to working together, as 19 formalized through Compacts and memoranda of agreement, ensures we always 20 find a path forward.

22 Let us remain true to the promises we have made to one another, securing a 23 prosperous and secure future for all. The strength of our partnership enables us 24 to address even the most challenging issues with mutual responsibility.

25
26 In honoring the legacy of our ancestors, past Tribal leaders, and past state 27 legislators, we pledge to continue their work and build a brighter tomorrow for 28 all.

29
30 Toghoyaqh!

33
34 ADDRESS BY CHAIRMAN HART

35
36 Good morning to all of you on this beautiful, January winter day in 2025, here
37 in Denver Colorado. I am Manuel Heart the Chairman of the Ute Mountain Ute
38 Tribe. At this time I would like to also recognize our UMUT Council.
39 Councilman Alston Turtle, Councilman Darwin Whiteman, Councilman
40 Conrad Jacket and Councilman Malcolm Lehi who is our Utah Representative.

41
42 First and foremost we want to thank our creator for everything we have in our 43 lives today and the many blessings that he blessed with, our families, our health, 44 our homes and the food upon our tables.

45
46 Thank You Governor Polis, Lt. Governor Primavera, Southern Ute Indian 47 Tribe, Members of the Legislators both in the Colorado State Senate and in the 48 Colorado State House of Representatives and the Justices of the Colorado
49 Courts, the Attorney General and the Colorado State Secretaries and all the 50 Members of the Cabinet. But most of all to the Citizens of this Great State of 51 Colorado.

52
53 Today is the third time, we as the two Ute tribes. The Ute Mountain Ute Tribe
54 and the Southern Ute Indian Tribe, comes before this State Governing body, 55 through a joint address to the State of Colorado. This is an historical event
56 between the three Sovereign Governments.

1 I would like to start off today, by saying I am speaking from my Heart to all of 2 you that are listening in these chambers and from far and near. I am requesting 3 also to each of you, to listen and to take these words I say and put yourself into 4 my address today. I am saying this respectfully, what I am trying to do is to 5 build a stronger relationship between the Tribal Governments and with the State
6 of Colorado.

7
8 I want to paint a picture that describes our history, so that you may feel the 9 empathy of our Ute people and many other Native Tribes. That we, as each of 10 the Tribal Nations across this country feel the challenges that we each face with 11 the Federal Government and States in a true genuine Government to 12 Government Sovereign Relationship.

13
14 As the elected Chairman including our Tribal Council, we are here to share with 15 you our challenges from the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe. Which is Housing, Health
16 Care, Education, Economic Development, Protecting our Natural Resources, 17 infrastructure and meaningful legislation that has lasting positive support for 18 our future.

20 Today our story has to be put on the table. Coming from the Ute Mountain Ute
21 Tribe and our Tribal reservation in Southwest Colorado and the challenges that 22 we face in these Government to Government relationships.

23
24 I would like to start with some questions to this body:

25
26 Do we truly know one another and do we visit each other in our communities.
27 How many of you have been to the Tribal Reservations? We always come up 28 here to Denver. There are many events throughout the year for everyone and we 29 should take that opportunity to visit one another.

30
31 I went to an event in another State recently about two weeks ago and there was 32 a lot of important people there and we should have known one another. Because 33 we are all legislators from a State and from the Tribal Governments. There must 34 have been over two hundred people there. That night I went to this event and 35 I felt like I was out of place and not welcomed. Because I knew no one there
36 other than the Governor and Lt. Governor. I was a stranger in the Capital 37 building that I come to all of the time and where I work with the Governor and 38 Lt Governor and legislatures. I had only two people come up to me that night
39 and that was a person who worked for the Health and Human Service
40 Department and a staffer for the State Government.

42 I realized that we lack a relationship of knowing one another. So how are we to 43 understand one another, and recognize the needs of our respective 44 Governments?

45
46 It goes back to our history and what has happened since. In the past there was 47 Good and Bad with all the challenges and the success we have had over time.
48 And measuring how far we have at come from the past all the way up to today 49 2025.

51 These Rocky Mountains were once the lands of the Ute People. We were the 52 original stewards of all of these mountains, long before the pioneers came and 53 the State hood of Colorado and other States around us.

1 The Ute people are the oldest living resident in the State of Colorado today. The 2 Utes have occupied these lands since time of immemorial and we cherish these 3 lands, Because they give us life, they sustain us and they protect us and today
4 is no different than thousands of years ago.

5
6 The Ute People today still hunt on these lands. We still drink and utilize the 7 water as a sacred resource from our creator. We still look and find and gather
8 our medicinal plants within these mountains. These mountains also bring forth 9 food that we can harvest.

11 We remain as connected to these lands and its resources, as we have ever been.
12 The Ute Mountain Ute Tribe has been able to take its ties to the land and use 13 these resources in the development of economic opportunities, to sustain the 14 Ute Mountain Ute Tribe and to promote self-governance.

15
16 Our creator put us here for a purpose in our creation story. Telling us we were 17 the original stewards of these mountains. Our destination of our Ute people and 18 our purpose. Including our past and today's current challenges in who we are, 19 and we are the proud Ute people within the State of Colorado. We are the 20 (Nuchu).

22 Change has come upon us as the Ute people and we forced into assimilation and 23 our children were forced into boarding schools. Overall we have lost a lot over 24 time. Today we share these lands that we once roamed freely in a state called 25 Colorado and we share these mountains with many Coloradans and with many 26 visitors and tourists that come to look at these majestic mountains and take in the 27 landscape throughout the four seasons. They also bring revenue to our State.

28
29 We as Tribes were removed from our aboriginal lands and that was not by our 30 choice. But through Federal legislation and a stroke of a pen of a sitting U.S.
31 President or the U.S. DOI Secretary, or even a State Governor. There is a dark
32 history for the U.S. Government and within some States in their relationship
33 with many Tribal Nations across the U.S.

34
35 Which brings us to this point here, and to this day. This is the question that 36 some of you might be thinking. So how do we move forward?

37
38 Today the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe comes before this body and we are looking 39 toward the future that we call tomorrow. So that we may envision a partnership 40 together and address today's challenges and tomorrow's needs for all of our 41 children and grandchildren that are not here yet. I think most of us here in these 42 chambers, ran for public office. With a purpose to succeed, from what we each 43 faced growing up. Seeing the inequity of services or the lack thereof. The 44 personal struggles that we each faced every day or seeing our families or our 45 communities face the lack of services or programs.

46
47 The obstacles and challenges across the board in every area that we each talk 48 about with our legislative body every year. Especially during budgets or during 49 the Legislative Bills being proposed. We as Governments are challenged with 50 passing legislation and an operating budget for that fiscal year. Every year the 51 needs grow from the current operating services, for employees and staff, our 52 individual Capital outlay projects and we must also find and generate revenue 53 in the same process. We each have an ever growing population our citizens and 54 their need for economic development and passing service programs to benefit 55 them. Their needs continue to exceed our current annual budgets every year.

56

1 We were elected by the people to serve the people that elected us into these 2 positions of our respective governments. That responsibility that we carry
3 comes with a tremendous commitment to our State and to the two Ute Tribal 4 Nations.

5
6 Our Ute Mountain Ute Tribal issues are not affiliated to any certain party, but 7 we would request, bipartisan support on all current and future bills. We want 8 to be a part of the solution and we can only do that through a partnerships and 9 a commitment from the State and the Tribe to start a new and stronger 10 prosperous relationship.

11
12 These are our issues and recommendations from the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe:

13
14 CCIA takes on the lead on the Government to Government meetings we have 15 and this is by Colorado Statues for the Commission. The Lt Governor Chairs
16 four Quarterly meetings with the two Ute Tribes the (Ute Mountain Ute Tribe 17 and the Sothern Ute Indian Tribe).

18
19 The two Ute Tribes each have two representatives sitting as voting members on 20 CCIA. We do have most of the Colorado State Departments joining us and 21 giving us a report and some opportunities for State department program dollars, 22 if available.

23
24 My question is how can we make the CCIA stronger in our governmental 25 relationship in moving things forward for the two Ute Tribes, with support from 26 the State of Colorado and the Governor's office to develop a caucus day for the 27 Ute Tribes and the Legislatures. Would it have to take legislation or an 28 amendment? Can we sit down and discuss this?

29
30 Water is very important to the State of Colorado but also for the two Ute Tribes, 31 and both of our Future uses here in the upper basin. We are and still currently 32 in a 20 year Drought here in the Colorado River Basin. We also have the 2026
33 Interim Guidelines coming up soon in less than a year, on how the water will 34 be managed in the future for our Colorado River Basin. These mountains is 35 where the head gates are for the Colorado River.

36
37 We bring to this body the ALP water Project:

38
39 We do have a project called ALP near Durango Colorado. It is based on a Water
40 Treaty settlement of 1868 with the U.S. Government for both of the Ute Tribes.
41 This would also include the State of Colorado. We as the two Ute Tribes have 42 a storage right in that Reservoir called Lake Nighthorse in Durango. When it 43 was authorized in 2000 there was an amendment to the settlement.

44
45 The delivery system that was in the original design and legislation for the Ute 46 Water Treaty Settlement of 1865, was taken out. So our water project lost the 47 AG portion of the water, which reduced the cost of the full project significantly 48 by about 250 million. The total project was around 750 million.

49
50 Both Ute Tribes each have 16 thousand acre/feet of water in that reservoir.
51 Municipal and industrial. The total storage is about 54 thousand acre/feet. In 52 total together we have as the two Ute Tribes about 32 thousand acre/feet of 53 water, that is not being used in that reservoir or compensated for none use, yet 54 others are compensated for non use.

55
56

1 So our Tribal water has been sitting there for over a decade now, with no
2 delivery system. There is no future water funding for a future delivery system.
3 Although we continue to ask the Department of Interior and the BOR. If there
4 was a request for funding, projected cost today to put in a delivery system
5 would be around 400 to 500 million from the originally cost of 250 million.
6

7 Currently we have been having these discussions, about titis concern in our 8 water meetings with the UCRC (Upper Colorado River Committee). There was 9 a recommendation from the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe to the States of Colorado
10 and State of New Mexico.
11

12 That proposal was to release our UMUT Tribal Water from the reservoir back
13 into the Animas River from Lake Nighthorse then let it go through the process
14 down river and into the San Juan River. Then we would request a pumping
15 plant at the cost of 75 million to pump our water back up to the Farm and Ranch
16 enterprise or for future development. We would pump it back out of the San 17 Juan River at the very Southwest corner of Colorado as it come back onto the 18 Ute Mountain Ute Tribal Reservation.
19

20 But based on the current Colorado State Water Compact there cannot be a 21 release from the reservoir back into the Animas River then let the water flow 22 down into the San Juan River. Which would cross the Colorado State Line into 23 New Mexico. Under this current Colorado Water compact, NM could claim the 24 water, once it crosses the State Line.
25

26 We also asked about shepherding the water through the tributaries of the 27 Animas and down into the San Juan River. If that were to happen, that would 28 take an amendment to the Compact or an MOA between the two States of 29 Colorado and NM and the UMUT.
30

31 So we are at a point now how do we address our access to our inherit water
32 right and passed by U.S. legislation authorized by Congress through an 1868
33 Water Treaty for the Ute Mountain Ute Tribe and our future use of this water 34 in the States of Colorado and New Mexico.
35

36 One of the areas that the Tribe believes needs attention in moving forward is to 37 continue to ensure on-going Consultation between the State and the UMUT.
38 Recently with the lack of consultation between the State and the UMUT has led 39 to some unfortunate differences that are causing disagreement between the State
40 and The UMUT.
41

42 Today I would request if the State of Colorado has a current legislation or a 43 consultation policy with the two Ute Tribes within the State of Colorado.
44

45 With what happened with the Introduction of the Wolf back into the State of 46 Colorado, we as the two Ute Tribes as the two Tribal Sovereign Governments 47 were never consulted with in the beginning and with the final outcome with the 48 passing of Proposition 114 by the Colorado voters. Now the DNR department
49 is working with the two Ute Tribes on individual management plans to help
50 develop a tribal management plan for the Gray Wolf on Tribal property in the 51 Gunnison County and within the Brunot area.
52

53 Sports Betting. This area continues to be an area of disagreement between the 54 State and The Tribes. If the State consulted with the two Ute Tribes and 55 involved them with the legislation these disagreements could have been 56 resolved years ago. This comes from the Colorado Department of Gaming

1 (CDOG) failing to recognize and consult with the two Ute Tribes. We are a
2 separate Tribal Government and we follow stricter gaming guidelines for Tribal
3 Gaming casinos. than the State, and We also have a Gaming Compact agreement
4 on gaming within the State of Colorado for our two Ute Tribal Casinos.
5

6 State of the State Address. We are recognized by the State of Colorado as 7 citizens and Coloradoans. The two Ute Tribes and the State of Colorado are the 8 three Sovereign Governments. We would respectfully like to be recognized in 9 the Governors address to the People of Colorado. We could become a strong 10 partner working with the State toward opportunities for a better future.
11

12 Final Request, if we are to continue to build this relationship and build upon it
13 for the future, maybe we develop a State and Tribal Caucus Day with the 14 Legislature sometime in the spring or early summer.
15

16 We are trying to build a stronger relationship with our Colorado State
17 Legislators and develop a place and time in the year, to sit down and talk to our 18 representatives on a Government to Government bases before the process of 19 introduction of new Legislative bills.
20

21 We want to thank everyone for this opportunity to come before, this body today.
22 I will leave this with all of you. Change is inevitable and if we want to move
23 forward for a better future for all Coloradans and that includes the two Ute
24 Tribes. The Ute Mountain Ute Tribe and the Southern Ute Indian Tribe. Change
25 comes at the speed of Trust and where your heart takes us all. Thank you and 26 may our creator continue to bless us all and may he bless the State of Colorado.

"WHEREAS, The sanctity of human life is a foundational principle, affirming the inherent dignity and worth of every human being, regardless of age, size, ability, location, or stage of development; and

WHEREAS, Human reproduction is the most sacred of responsibilities given to us by God, and preserving the right to reproduce life is of the highest order for any society; and

WHEREAS, Abortion intentionally ends the life of an innocent, living, distinct-from-the-mother, whole, vulnerable human being, and thereby halts the reproductive process; and

WHEREAS, Colorado has a vested interest in protecting the lives of all people within its boundaries and growing its population; and

WHEREAS, Vulnerable women, especially those facing difficult circumstances, including unintended or complicated pregnancies, financial hardship, abandonment and lack of support, or societal pressure, are often coerced into making decisions they may not otherwise make, particularly regarding abortion; and

WHEREAS, We acknowledge that issues of justice, equality, and the protection of marginalized groups should not be used as a justification for ending innocent lives, but instead should be used to advocate for policies that empower women to have information and resources to truly make an informed, supported choice for both mothers and their preborn children; and

WHEREAS, We imagine a future in which every child has the chance to live and thrive, free from the threat of abortion, and where Coloradans embrace policies that uplift life, justice, and the fundamental right to exist; now, therefore,".

Page 4, strike lines 8 through 12 and substitute:

"(1) Reject the designation of January 22 as "Reproductive Rights and Justice Day" and instead propose a day of remembrance and advocacy recognizing January 22 as "Sanctity of Human Life Day"; and

(2) Resolve to advance legislative efforts that protect the preborn and recognize their right to life as written in the 14th Amendment of the United States Constitution and that reflect our duty to protect and uphold the dignity of every human being.".

34

35 PURPOSE: Strikes the Appropriations Committee Report that removes 36 the amendment added in the Senate that extends spending authority for 37 the DNA Testing and Reimbursement line item in the Colorado Bureau
38 of Investigation (CBI) in the Department of Public Safety through June
39 30, 2026. This amendment (J.003) restores the extension of spending 40 authority through June 30, 2026 and adds legislative intent for the 41 Department and CBI to provide updates every 30 days to the General
42 Assembly and implement a public-facing dashboard on the Department's 43 website within 90 days related to DNA and sexual assault kit test
44 backlogs. This line item is a FY 2023-24 appropriation with current 45 spending authority through June 30, 2025. Although the amendment has 46 no fiscal impact in the prior (FY 2023-24) or current (FY 2024-25) fiscal 47 years, the amendment has the effect of further appropriating the amount 48 that remains unspent at the end of the current fiscal year for FY 2025-26.
49 It is anticipated that almost all of the appropriation will remain unspent
50 at the end of the current fiscal year. Therefore, this amendment decreases
51 the General Fund available for related or other FY 2025-26
52 appropriations by the same amount.

33 Amend printed bill, page 2, before line 2 insert:

34

35 "SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general
36 assembly finds that:

37 (a) Colorado families need and deserve an abundance of 38 high-quality, affordable child care options, and such a system benefits
39 Colorado children, parents, communities, businesses, and the state
40 economy;

41 (b) Large for-profit child care center chains backed by 42 institutional investors have been proliferating in Colorado, and these child 43 care center chains have a profit maximization motive distinct from 44 nonprofit, community-based, or small noninstitutional investor-backed 45 for-profit child care programs;

46 (c) Child care center chains have, at times, engaged in 47 profit-driven actions contrary to the best interests of staff, enrolled 48 families, and the health of Colorado's overall child care system. These 49 actions include targeted or sudden closures of child care sites and real 50 estate transactions that harm the financial position of child care sites.

51 (d) As more public funding becomes available to support
52 Colorado's child care system, expansion of child care center chains is 53 likely and may result in the capture of public dollars for the private gain 54 of investors;

55

(e) The government has long taken an active role in establishing guardrails against profit-maximizing behavior by private businesses, particularly those in which there is a strong public interest, such as private educational institutions, hospitals, banks, and airlines;

(2) Therefore, the general assembly declares that it is necessary to:

(a) Define large for-profit, institutionally backed child care center chains as a distinct class of child care program; and

(b) Establish guardrails that mitigate profit-maximizing behavior in child care, including preventing child care center chains from:

(I) Levying excessive ancillary fees, such as wait list fees;

(II) Not being transparent about the full price of services;

(III) Forcing sale-leaseback arrangements that enrich investors, leaving child care sites with unnecessary debt; and

(IV) Conducting mass layoffs or site closures without reasonable notice to staff and enrolled families."

Renumber succeeding sections accordingly.

Page 3, strike lines 6 through 26 and substitute:

"(2) A CHILD CARE CENTER OWNED BY AN INSTITUTIONAL INVESTMENT ENTITY SHALL POST AND UPDATE CHILD CARE PRICING ON THE CHILD CARE CENTER'S WEBSITE PURSUANT TO THE REQUIREMENTS OF SECTION 26.5-5-332 (5).

(3) (a) UPON ACQUISITION OF A CHILD CARE CENTER, AN INSTITUTIONAL INVESTMENT ENTITY SHALL PROVIDE AT LEAST SIXTY DAYS' NOTICE TO CHILD CARE CENTER EMPLOYEES AND FAMILIES WHO HAVE CHILDREN ENROLLED AT THE CHILD CARE CENTER IF THE INSTITUTIONAL INVESTMENT ENTITY INTENDS TO LAY OFF CHILD CARE CENTER EMPLOYEES OR CHANGE ENROLLMENT OR ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR THE CHILD CARE CENTER AS A RESULT OF THE INSTITUTIONAL INVESTMENT ENTITY'S ACQUISITION.

(b) THE DEPARTMENT MAY REQUIRE AN INSTITUTIONAL INVESTMENT ENTITY TO ANNUALLY SUBMIT INFORMATION RELATED TO THE INSTITUTIONAL INVESTMENT ENTITY'S GENERAL FINANCIAL CONDITION. THIS INFORMATION MAY INCLUDE AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS."

"(5) IF A CHILD CARE CENTER DOES NOT COMPLY WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF THIS SECTION, THE DEPARTMENT MAY TAKE FURTHER DISCIPLINARY ACTION PURSUANT TO SECTION 26.5-5-317 (2).

SECTION 3. Effective date. This act takes effect upon passage; except that section 26.5-1-118 (2), Colorado Revised Statutes, as enacted in section 1 of this act, takes effect only if Senate Bill 25-004 becomes law, in which case section 26.5-1-118 (2) takes effect on the effective date of this act or Senate Bill 25-004, whichever is later."

Renumber succeeding section accordingly.

(a) As Colorado continues to grapple with the impacts of climate change, green urban spaces, such as urban tree canopies, are a vital adaptation tool for mitigating the impacts of climate change, especially for mitigating the urban heat island effect, which can increase energy costs, air pollution, and heat-related illnesses and deaths;

(b) However, water supply in the western United States is increasingly scarce due to climate change and increasing demand;

(c) Many communities in the state overuse nonnative grass for landscaping purposes, which requires large amounts of water to maintain;

(d) While there are appropriate and important uses for turf, including for civic, community, or recreational purposes such as use in parks, sports fields, and playgrounds, much of the turf in the state is nonfunctional, located in areas that receive little, if any, use, and could be replaced with landscaping that adheres to water-wise landscaping principles without adversely impacting quality of life or landscape functionality;

(e) Prohibiting the installation, planting, or placement of nonfunctional turf in multifamily property in the state can help conserve the state's water resources;

(f) Requiring local governments to regulate turf in new residential properties can help preserve the limited water in our state;

(g) Many communities and developments develop in a water-wise manner already and are appreciated; and

(h) Installed vegetation that adheres to water-wise landscaping principles can help reduce outdoor demand for water while avoiding heat islands.

(2) The general assembly therefore declares that preventing the installation, planting, or placement of nonfunctional turf, artificial turf, and invasive plant species in applicable property in the state is:

(a) A matter of statewide concern; and

(b) In the public interest."

47 PERCENT INCREASE FROM THE PREVIOUS YEAR. IN 2022, OVER ONE

18 INCOME, THERE ARE ONLY TWENTY-SEVEN AVAILABLE HOMES
19 CONSIDERED AFFORDABLE FOR EVERY ONE HUNDRED HOMES NEEDED.

21 RESOLVE AND PREVENT HOMELESSNESS. THERE IS NO REQUIREMENT OR 22 INFRASTRUCTURE CURRENTLY IN PLACE TO CONVENE STATE AGENCIES, 23 LOCAL GOVERNMENTS, CONTINUUMS OF CARE, NONPROFITS, AND OTHER

1 "SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general
2 assembly finds that:

3 (a) Agreements or conspiracies between competitors to fix prices
4 or other commercial terms are illegal under current Colorado law, and 5 algorithmic devices have made illegal agreements more challenging to 6 detect; and

7 (b) In recent years, several lawsuits have been filed alleging that 8 the use of algorithmic devices by landlords to set prices and other
9 commercial terms in the residential housing market results in higher rents 10 and constrained housing supply for residential tenants; and

11 (c) A recent White House study titled "The Cost of 12 Anticompetitive Pricing Algorithms in Rental Housing" estimated that in 13 2023, the cost to renters of anticompetitive pricing was $3.8 billion, and 14 the cost to renters in the Denver metro area was the second highest of any 15 metro area in the country.

16 (2) Therefore, the general assembly declares that, with certain 17 exceptions, the distribution and use of an algorithmic device by a service
18 provider or landlord to set rents and other certain commercial terms 19 regarding the occupancy of rental housing is prohibited.

20 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add 38-12-703 as

33 PREMISES IS PROHIBITED IF THE PERSON KNEW OR SHOULD HAVE KNOWN
34 THAT ANOTHER PERSON USED THE ALGORITHMIC DEVICE, OR AN 35 ALGORITHMIC DEVICE TRAINED ON SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR DATA, TO SET
36 OR RECOMMEND THE AMOUNT OF RENT, LEVEL OF OCCUPANCY, OR OTHER
37 COMMERCIAL TERM ASSOCIATED WITH THE OCCUPANCY OF A RESIDENTIAL
38 PREMISES IN THE SAME MARKET OR A RELATED MARKET.

39 (c) A PERSON ENGAGED IN THE BUSINESS OF PROVIDING 40 ALGORITHMIC DEVICE SERVICES OR PRODUCTS THAT ARE USED TO SET OR 41 RECOMMEND THE AMOUNT OF RENT, LEVEL OF OCCUPANCY, OR OTHER
43 PREMISES SHALL NOT USE NONPUBLIC COMPETITOR DATA PERTAINING TO 44 RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES IN COLORADO IN ALGORITHMIC CALCULATIONS.

46 ILLEGAL RESTRAINT OF TRADE OR COMMERCE IN VIOLATION OF SECTION

31 JUDICIARY

32 After consideration on the merits, the Committee recommends the 33 following:

34

35 HB25-1147 be amended as follows, and as so amended, be referred to 36 the Committee of the Whole with favorable
37 recommendation:

38

39 Amend printed bill, page 2, after line 1 insert:

40 "SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general
41 assembly finds and declares that:

42 (a) Fair and consistent criminal sentencing, access to counsel for 43 indigent people accused of crimes, and transparency of court proceedings
44 across Colorado are matters of statewide concern;

45 (b) Disparities in criminal sentencing reduce the fairness,
46 rationality, and equity of Colorado's criminal justice system;

47 (c) In 2020, Governor Jared Polis, in his Biennial Topics Letter, 48 directed the Colorado Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice to 49 propose comprehensive reform to Colorado's sentencing laws, explaining:
50 "Our sentencing scheme should be rational, just, and consistent so that the 51 punishment fits the conduct";

52 (d) In this letter, Governor Polis listed as "values" to guide
53 sentencing reform: "Ensuring fair and consistent treatment" and 54 "Eliminating unjustified disparities in sentencing";

55

1 (e) Following Governor Polis' directive, the Colorado
2 Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice recommended passage of 3 Senate Bill 21-271, which standardized and rationalized sentencing for 4 misdemeanors in state court. The bill was silent with regard to application
5 to municipal courts;

6 (f) Senate Bill 21-271 passed with bipartisan, law enforcement,
7 and criminal justice reformer support;

8 (g) Since the passage of Senate Bill 21-271, some municipal 9 courts have exercised their authority to sentence defendants to jail for up 10 to 364 days for crimes related to poverty, which are capped at a 10-day
11 jail sentence in state court under Senate Bill 21-271;

12 (h) The sentencing disparities between municipal and state courts 13 is a matter of statewide concern, requiring action to align sentences to 14 avoid irrational, unjust, and excessive punishments that are out of step 15 with Colorado values and legal standards; and

16 (i) The sentencing disparities between municipal and state courts 17 creates a 2-tiered system of justice that ensures unequal treatment under 18 the law, which is inconsistent with Colorado values and legal standards.

19 (2) Therefore, the general assembly expressly declares that there 20 is a need to end sentencing disparities between state and municipal courts
21 in order to ensure equal treatment under the law for all Coloradans."

7 "SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly 8 finds and declares that:

9 (a) Current law regarding lobbyist registration requires an 10 individual who engages with covered officials and receives compensation
11 from the organization for which they are speaking to register as a 12 professional lobbyist and report to the secretary of state's office;

13 (b) This includes timely reporting of each interaction, payment of 14 a registration fee, monthly disclosure reports on a year-round basis, and 15 the acknowledgment of engaging in lobbying activity, and these 16 requirements apply to employees of nonprofit charitable organizations
17 classified under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code;

18 (c) Current law has had a massive chilling effect on the 19 engagement by nonprofit charitable organizations with the general
20 assembly because nonprofit charitable organizations are uncomfortable 21 with the professional lobbyist title and the need to provide disclosures for 22 a single or handful of interactions with elected officials;

23 (d) Nonprofit advocates are not lobbyists by trade but are required
24 to engage on legislation affecting their employer;

25 (e) Nonprofit charitable organizations value transparency and the 26 desire to share what they are working on, whom they have spoken to, and 27 what their position on a matter is, but feel the current requirements are 28 burdensome; and

29 (f) Nonprofit charitable organizations provide a valuable and 30 unique lens when evaluating legislation because they comprise a large 31 part of the state and provide an important perspective for the general 32 assembly.

33 (2) Therefore, the general assembly further finds and declares that 34 there is a need to provide for a new type of lobbyist registration that 35 encourages engagement and participation by nonprofit charitable 36 organizations and provides for transparency that is critical to the 37 legislative process."

52 "SECTION 1. Legislative declaration. (1) The general
53 assembly finds that:
54

- 1 (a) Students and staff in Colorado's public schools deserve access
2 to clean, healthy air along with proper heating and cooling to improve 3 their opportunities to learn;
- 4 (b) Indoor air quality is one of several toxic threats to students in 5 schools;
- 6 (c) The condition of inadequate school facilities can expose
7 students and staff to mold and legacy toxins such as lead, asbestos, and 8 industrial products and chemicals known as "PCBs"; poor air quality and 9 temperature control; inadequate lighting; and excessive noise; and
- 10 (d) Improving the air quality in schools can result in higher
11 attendance, better cognitive function, less asthma and other respiratory 12 health problems, and improved academic performance.
- 13 (2) The general assembly further finds that:
- 14 (a) In Colorado, many of the conditions that cause unhealthy
15 indoor air and environmental quality impact Colorado school buildings;
- 16 (b) Various Colorado schools have been featured in news stories 17 profiling funding shortages, heating and cooling issues, and the need for 18 facility improvements;
- 19 (c) The department of education's own "Facility Insight"
20 dashboard reports the average age of school infrastructure to be 40 years; 21 and
- 22 (d) State school buildings receive a poor score on the "Facility 23 Condition Index".
- 24 (3) The general assembly further finds that:
- 25 (a) Despite efforts by state agencies and school districts to 26 improve indoor environmental quality in classrooms and other school
27 buildings, many of Colorado's school districts lack the funding and staff
28 to improve facility conditions and thereby improve school health 29 outcomes;
- 30 (b) According to the American Society of Civil Engineers' 2020
31 infrastructure report card, Colorado schools have an approximately $14
32 billion funding gap between the need for infrastructure replacements, 33 repairs, or upgrades and money available from regular funding and budget 34 processes;
- 35 (c) The current funding sources for schools do not equitably
36 distribute funding, leaving many schools in rural and disproportionately 37 impacted communities unable to pay for necessary retrofits and updates;
- 38 (d) The passage of the federal "Inflation Reduction Act of 2022"
39 and "Bipartisan Infrastructure Law", which was enacted as the federal 40 "Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act", have made billions of dollars 41 in federal money available to combine with current and planned state or 42 local funding that can help public schools improve air quality, improve 43 student performance and staff retention, and realize significant energy 44 savings for school districts;
- 45 (e) Accessing this federal money would not only improve air
46 quality in schools but also bring billions of dollars in economic 47 investments in air quality projects to Colorado communities and workers;
48 and
- 49 (f) Unfortunately, many of the schools with the most pressing
50 infrastructure improvement needs lack the staff capacity to track, apply 51 for, and manage grant funding available at the state and federal level.
- 52 (4) Therefore, the general assembly declares that, in order to help 53 schools address health concerns and energy efficiency needs, this act:
54

- 1 (a) Will save schools money by ensuring that facility improvement
2 projects are completed by a highly skilled workforce and result in 3 measurable energy efficiency improvements and health improvements for 4 students and staff; and
- 5 (b) Allows Colorado's school districts to choose to undergo an 6 HVAC assessment and find a pathway to fund any improvements
7 identified without mandating that any school must undergo an assessment
8 or HVAC improvements.
- 9 SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, add 22-32-152 as 10 follows:
